Rite for Entrance into Catechumenate

Next Sunday, November 23, at the 10:00 am Mass at Saint Ferdinand Church, we will welcome adults who are not Catholic and are preparing for initiation into the Catholic Church at Easter. This first liturgical rite acknowledges their desire to be with us in the Eucharist, and our desire to welcome them. If you know of someone who would like to become a Catholic, invite them to reach out to Jason Gawaldo, our Director for Evangelization and Catechetical Ministries, at jgawaldo@divinegracepg.org.

Are You Spiritually Prepared for Advent?

This coming week we are hosting a Pre-Advent Parish Mission at Saint Ferdinand Church from Monday through Wednesday featuring Nick De La Torre, host of The Awaken Catholic Show. Nick's presentations on Monday and Tuesday begin at 7:00 pm and will feature the healing power of prayer, the importance of Adoration and Confession, and getting ourselves ready for Advent. The Mission ends on Wednesday with an evening of Healing & Liberation presented by Dry Bones Ministries. We will have all-day Adoration with Confession available at 5:30 pm, a talk on spiritual warfare at 6:30 pm, and Mass and Blessing with Relics at 7:00 pm.

Thanksgiving Day Masses

As you finalize your schedule for Thanksgiving Day, prayerfully consider attending Mass that day. We will celebrate Mass at 9:00 am at all three of our churches. We priests will be blessing food if you would like to bring a basket. We will also distribute blessed bread that you can enjoy at your Thanksgiving dinner.

Pray for the Lonely

Let's keep in our prayer all who experience loneliness. They might be the homebound, people who are sick, those raising young families, people struggling with addiction, those working hard to pay their bills, the widowed, someone who has experienced a recent death, a spouse trying to be faithful in marriage, a person who is divorced, perhaps who lives alone, and people with mental health challenges. May God give them His peace.

To Parents and Caregivers of Little Ones

YOU ARE WELCOME IN OUR PARISH. We want to hear your babies and toddlers. These sounds mean our parish is growing and our young people are participating at Mass. Children can fuss and be impatient. Never feel they are a distraction – our parish is your spiritual home. YOU ARE WELCOME IN OUR PARISH! We know that you may often be tired and struggling to just make it to Mass. How grateful we are that you make the effort to be at Mass when it might be easier to stay at home. We know it is not easy to get children fed, dressed, in the car, and then into the church. Thank you! YOU ARE WELCOME IN OUR PARISH!

You are teaching your children how important they are to our parish. You are teaching them to feel comfortable in their church. You are teaching them that to love God and to worship involves the whole community. If you notice the unwanted stare of another in the pew, that does not represent our parish. We want you here. Your babies and toddlers are the future of the Church. YOU ARE WELCOME IN OUR PARISH!

† Stories of Faith †

Young Convert: “My Faith Means Everything”

When Father Jim Wehner celebrates the Rite for Entrance into the Catechumenate next Sunday for adults preparing to be baptized, Nick Fleeson may be thinking back to his own journey of faith. He struggled through a difficult childhood with little religious education but chooses to be grateful for his blessings - especially the Catholic Church.

Nick and Breonna with Father Joe Freedy on their wedding day

“Growing up, my home life was rough,” Nick quietly recalls. His father died when he was 10 years old. He also survived a bad car accident. Then, five years ago, he met Breonna, who was raised Catholic. When they began to talk about marriage, she wanted a church wedding. So, Nick made a life-changing choice to become Catholic. He says it was the right decision. “My faith means everything,” he says.

Today, at age 26 he is active at Holy Redeemer Church, a regular at Mass and a member of the Holy Name Society and Men’s Group. He can’t learn enough about the Catholic faith. “I always find ways to relate to the Gospel,” Nick says. “Receiving the Word of God and the Body of Christ, I feel as if my heart has been on fire.

“The Men’s Group – I love it,” he says. “It’s a chance to connect with the other guys. They open up and we pray. I love the strength and guidance God gives me. I want to follow Him.”

Nick is also an evangelizer in his family, inviting his sister and brother-in-law to join the Catholic Church. They were confirmed this month.

“Many people my age aren’t influenced by the right people,” he observed. “Growing up, I knew the Ten Commandments but that was about it.”

A year ago last August, Nick and Breonna were married at Holy Redeemer Church. In a moment of reflection, he thought about losing his dad at a young age. “I have a Father in heaven,” he said.

Tap Into the Healing Power of Prayer

Catholic author, speaker, podcaster and musician Nick De La Torre is bringing the healing power of prayer to Divine Grace Parish next week.

Nick will be the main presenter of a Pre-Advent Parish Mission, presented in partnership with the Hallow App and Dry Bones Ministries. A classically trained vocalist-turned-evangelizer, he leads Awaken Catholic, whose mission is to awaken hearts and minds to the beauty, truth, healing and power found in the Catholic Church.

Nick will present on the Healing Power of Prayer on Monday, November 17 and Tuesday, November 18, both evenings beginning at 7:00 pm, and he will lead music during Adoration and Confessions on Tuesday.

On Wednesday, November 19, experience an evening of Healing & Liberation presented by Dry Bones Ministries. Following all-day Adoration, confessions begins at 5:30 pm with a talk of spiritual warfare at 6:30 pm and Mass, and blessing with relics at 7:00 pm.

There is no cost; courtesy RSVP at <https://divinegracepgh.org/talks>.

Education Sessions Set for ENDOWMENT PROGRAM

There's a new way for Divine Grace parishioners to leave a legacy of faith for future generations. The Catholic Foundation for Greater Pittsburgh has been established to create endowed funds for parishes like Divine Grace to provide consistent annual income as needs continue to evolve.

The Fund for Divine Grace Parish will offer a permanent source of support, receiving estate commitments such as bequests and retirement plans, designations of life insurance policies, personal or corporate matching gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, and charitable lead trusts.

Because they are typically funded with assets, legacy gifts usually cost donors nothing during their lifetimes. You may designate your contribution, such as sustaining vibrant religious education and youth ministry, training lay ministers, and expanding evangelization and outreach.

Two education sessions are scheduled for parishioners to learn more. On Thursday, December 11 at 9:00 am, we will begin with a continental breakfast in Saint Ferdinand's McAndrew-Biller Hall; the meeting will begin at 9:30. An online session also is available on Tuesday, December 16 at 6:30 pm. Use this Zoom link: <https://shorturl.at/X4OOq>

Experience the joy of passing on your God-given blessings to sustain our parish, advance our faith, and endow our future. More at www.cfgpitt.org.

SCREENFAST

Unplug to Recharge Your Faith

As Catholics we are called to live in freedom, but how many of us are hooked on our smartphones, tablets, computers and TVs? During November we have been inviting parishioners to fast from non-essential screen use, and use the additional time to prepare for Advent and grow in our faith.

How are you doing so far? Are you more aware of how much time you spend in front of a screen? Tips at <https://divinegracepgh.org/screen-fast>.

Unpacking the Word

— Malachi 3:19-20A (4:1-2) —

In the early fourth century B.C., the Exile in Babylon was firmly a thing of the past, and the civic and religious reforms of Nehemiah and Ezra had not yet happened. The individuals who took up Cyrus the Great's offer to return to the Promised Land had already rebuilt the Temple and their lives, although the former was underwhelming in comparison to Solomon's Temple. The Jews, as they were called by this time, were not allowed to reinstitute the Davidic Monarchy, and so for all practical purposes local leadership fell to the priests who ministered in the Temple. The religious fervor of the rebuild had started to fade, and the priests began to abuse their authority. Into this mess, the Lord sent the prophet Malachi.

The book that bears the Prophet Malachi's name is structured around six disputations in which the Lord states a truth or makes an accusation, the people respond, and then the Lord presents evidence to back up his claim. Our reading this week is from the final disputation in which Malachi speaks of the coming Day of Lord, a day of fire that will consume the wicked, as opposed to the refining fire that will purify the sons of Levi (see 3:3). This day of judgment will usher in a new era which Isaiah and Revelation call a "new heavens and a new earth." It is the Final Judgment that we speak of in the Creed: He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead.

In these waning days of the liturgical year, as the lectionary readings have an increasingly pronounced focus on the end times, the Lord invites us once again to ponder the reality of our individual judgment at death and the final judgment at the end of time. Those who fear his name are not just those who are afraid of fiery judgment but those who embrace the gift of the Spirit that is the fear of the Lord (see Isaiah 11:2). It is a fear that trembles in awe before the majesty of the Lord, but it is also rooted in love, the fear of hurting the beloved, of letting Him down. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" (Proverbs 9:10). When the Lord returns, may we be found ready to rise with the sun of righteousness and not burn up as stubble in arrogant pride.

Five Reasons to Check Out Faith on Fire

Faith on Fire is a regional young adult ministry for those ages 21-39, in collaboration with eight parishes, including Divine Grace. Five reasons to come to an event:

1. To connect with young adults who live and work in the North Hills.
2. To set your faith on fire and grow closer to Jesus.
3. Our monthly events are free thanks to our generous partner parishes and donors.
4. To help build up community at Divine Grace Parish.
5. Pope Francis said, “Young people are the living hope of a missionary church,” and we are called to be missionaries together.

LEARNING THROUGH A ROBOTIC BIRD

Many Saint Gregory students benefit from STREAM class (Science, Technology, Religious, Engineering, Art, Math). Our 4th graders recently created road maps complete with bumps and curves. Then they used coding to program Robotic Finches to travel the route.

SAINT CARLO ACUTIS

In a recent Mass, student altar servers took part in the blessing of the Saint Carlo Acutis icon with Father Jim at Saint Gregory Church.

AUCTION WRAP-UP

Thank you to everyone who came out and enjoyed our annual auction, Tailgate for a Cause, on November 8. Special thanks to our organizers – Candace Sanders, Katelyn Cortez, and Amy Greathouse – and all who worked so hard to make it a great night!

"We had a fantastic turnout for our 25th Annual Auction & Social. We're so grateful for the support from our Parish and local community." –Participant

PINK POWER

Saint Gregory's Student Council recently hosted a PINK OUT Dress Down Day. Students who wore pink for the school day made a donation to the Michelle Peduto "Lighting the Way" Scholarship Fund. Thanks to the strong participation, students raised $515.

In addition to contemplation of God, the three Archangels communicate His Will to us, serve as our inspiration, and are catalysts of His Divine Grace.
—Their feast day is September 29—

Michael

A name that echoes awe: Michael means “Who is like God?” a rhetorical question that reminds us of God’s unmatched power. Michael stands as the mighty warrior of heaven, the archangel who cast down Satan and defends God’s people with unwavering strength. He is the heavenly protector of first responders and soldiers, those who run toward danger with courage in their hearts.

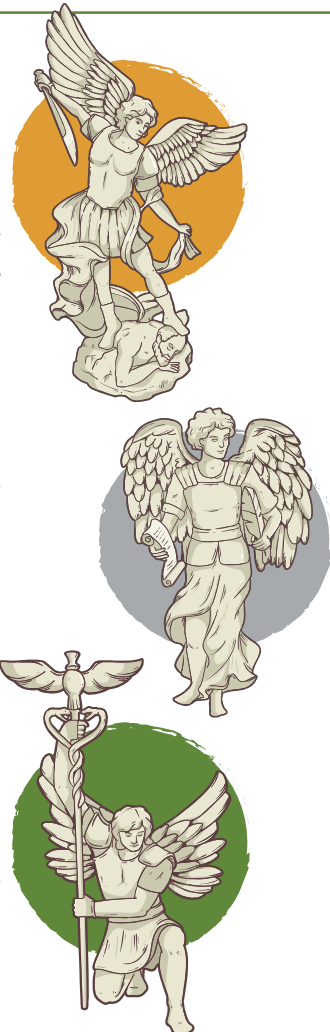

Gabriel

Gabriel’s name means “God’s Power,” and his presence radiates divine authority and clarity. As the messenger of heaven, Gabriel delivered God’s word to Daniel and announced the birth of Jesus to Mary with grace and conviction. He is the patron of postal workers and communicators, those who carry messages that matter, bridging hearts and homes.

Raphael

Raphael means “God’s Doctor,” a gentle yet powerful reminder of divine healing. Known for restoring both body and soul, Raphael walks with the sick, the weary, and the traveler. He is the patron of medical professionals and all who seek healing, physical, emotional, or spiritual, bringing comfort and renewal wherever he is invoked.

The Archangels

Be a Light for all to see.

- Matthew 5:16

Families Facing Food Insecurity Need Help

With the loss of SNAP benefits due to the U.S. government shutdown, Mary's Place of Pittsburgh is asking for donations of grocery store gift cards. Mary's Place provides safe housing and support for pregnant women and mothers of newborns, and leaders say many moms are struggling to put food on the table. Gift cards to stores such as Giant Eagle, Aldi, Walmart and Target are needed. They can be mailed or dropped off at Mary's Place, 2905 Castlegate Ave., Pittsburgh 15226, or sent electronically to director@marysplacepgh.org. Thank you!

Christmas Cards and Crafts

The Little Sisters of Poor are again selling Christmas Cards sketched by Sister Martha, LSP. Christmas 2024's card (a blue sketch) is also available. The cards are: 7 for $10 + $2 shipping; 12 for $15 + $3 shipping; or 30 for $25 + $10 priority shipping.

Christmas cards and crafts can be viewed and ordered at www.littlesistersofthepoorpittsburgh.org or call 412-307-1100. All proceeds help support the elderly poor residents in the Little Sisters' care.

Support Catholic Education Through EITC

The Diocese of Pittsburgh is making it easier for individuals and businesses to turn their PA state tax dollars into tuition assistance for Catholic school students, at no cost. Through the Educational Improvement Tax Credit programs (EITC), participants can receive a 90 percent state tax credit by contributing to the diocese's approved scholarship fund. These contributions are distributed as tuition assistance to families across the diocese. While businesses have long benefited, recent changes now allow individuals paying state taxes to take part as well. Visit <https://diopitt.org/eitc> to learn more and participate.

To register, mail a check by November 20 made out to St Luke's Parish to Rosemary Boyce, 2589 Cole Rd, Wexford, PA 15090 (412-585-2831). Please include your phone number.
