Father Jim's Christmas Message

The Week of December 21, 2025

3

DIVINE GRACE PARISH
OFFICE OF THE PASTOR
Christmas 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

Blessed Christmas to you! As I celebrate Christmas liturgies, please know that I will hold in my heart the intentions of our parish. I want to thank those who provide leadership in our parish, the countless volunteers who support the ministries, apostolates, and organizations which enable us to be a vibrant and welcoming community, and to our dedicated clergy and staff.

I want to thank those who have registered in our parish this past year, those who may have left the Church and now have returned, and those who are new to the area. As we hear in the Christmas liturgy – The Word became flesh and dwelt among us! The sacramental and liturgical experience of God made possible by Jesus Christ is what our Catholic Church brings to the world. It is the Holy Eucharist which sustains us and feeds our spiritual lives. Indeed, the Lord stated that man cannot live by bread alone; one cannot live by only what the world offers.

The heraldry of the Angels – Glory to God in the Highest and on earth peace to people of good will – this is why we go to Mass: to glorify God in worship as a community. This is why it is essential for us to invite those back to the Faith who have left.

This past year may have brought difficulties for those who lost a loved one, those who struggle financially, those who are homebound or in a nursing home, those who are lonely, those who struggle with a health issue. May the Lord bring you peace and consolation in your suffering.

My prayer for you and for our parish is that the Christmas mystery can be lived each day. As the shepherds and kings went to the crib, so we too come to meet our Lord at Mass. He comes to us and we go to Him as a parish community.

Blessings to everyone for a wonderful Christmas season. Please pray for me as I pray for you.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Father James A. Wehner, S.T.D.
Pastor

Advent Wreath Prayer

Fourth Week of Advent
December 21 – Theme: Love

1. Light all four candles

2. Read from Scripture: “And the angel said to them, ‘Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.’” (Luke 2:10-11)

3. Pray the Advent Wreath Prayer for Week 4: “Dear Jesus, may the light of your love always shine in our hearts. As Christmas draws closer, we marvel at your great love for us. Let your love transform every aspect of our lives and touch everyone we encounter. Our hearts are open to you, Jesus. Amen.”

4. Reflect: What concerns, worries, joys and prayers do you want to bring to Jesus this Christmas?

Ensuring Your Strong Faith Lives On

Many parishioners faithfully and generously support Divine Grace Parish through their weekly offertory giving. But what about leaving a lasting legacy?

The new Catholic Foundation for Greater Pittsburgh is creating endowed funds at parishes for donors to provide a permanent source of support with gifts that reflect their values and help the programs and ministries they care about.

Common legacy gifts include estate commitments such as bequests and retirement plans, designations of life insurance policies, personal or corporate matching gifts, and trusts and annuities. Because they are typically funded with assets, legacy gifts usually cost donors nothing during their lifetimes. You may designate your donation your donation or leave it unrestricted. It's an opportunity to sustain our parish, advance our faith, and endow our future.

Visit <https://partner.freewill.com/cfgpitt> to create a will or make a legacy gift.

ACT OF CONTRITION

*My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong
and failing to do good,
I have sinned against You.
I firmly intend, with Your help, to do penance, to sin
no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.*

Amen.

Christmas | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they look at the painting Adoration of the Shepherds by Gerard van Honthorst to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. This famous painting reveals the Christ Child as the light that has come into the world and also depicts the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, and the shepherds to be models of adoration to our humble Lord who came as a helpless baby.

What Catholics Believe: Christmas, Traditions, Santa

Join Dr. Michael Barber as he answers some of the Internet's most popular questions about Christmas. What are the 12 days of Christmas? Was Santa Claus a real person? What is Advent?

— Isaiah 7:10-14 —

This week, the Church presents us with one of Isaiah's most famous prophecies, the Emmanuel Prophecy. Isaiah delivered this message in 733 B.C. At this time, the mighty Assyrian Empire was expanding its borders into the Holy Land. The kingdom of Israel (God's apostate people who had broken away from the Davidic king ruling over Judah) and the kingdom of Syria were threatening to invade Judah because its king, Ahaz, would not join their military alliance to resist the Assyrian advance. The Lord sent Isaiah to encourage King Ahaz to trust in him and not to trust in a military alliance. As proof that the Lord would protect Judah, Isaiah asks Ahaz to pick a sign that God can perform, and Ahaz declines in a huff of false piety. And so the Lord picks the sign: a virgin will conceive and bear a son named Emmanuel.

Prophecy does not function with the precision of mathematics, and this is a notoriously tricky prophecy. There is no scholarly consensus as to what Isaiah was originally referring to. Is "Emmanuel" Ahaz's son Hezekiah? Is he one of Isaiah's sons? Is he a figure of God's people as a whole? Or does he point ahead to the Messiah? A further complication is that Isaiah's Hebrew points to a young woman (almah) bearing a child, not necessarily to a virgin bearing a child. The ambiguity of the reference coupled with the original language has led hordes of modern scholars to scoff at the Gospel of Matthew for claiming it as a prophecy of Jesus' virgin birth. Yet, for centuries before Jesus was born, God's people had been reading Isaiah's words as referring to "Emmanuel's" birth from a virgin mother. Already by the third century B.C., Jewish scholars in Alexandria, Egypt, who were translating the scriptures into Greek rendered almah as parthenos, a young woman presumed to be a virgin who miraculously gives birth to a son. This is the interpretation maintained by the rabbis in the decades before Jesus was born. And of course, it is the Christian reading of this same prophecy.

Did Isaiah understand the fuller meaning that God intended by this prophecy? Perhaps, and perhaps not. Did Isaiah's original audience think that "Emmanuel's" mother would be a virgin only until she conceived in the usual way? Perhaps, and perhaps not. Did God say something to humanity more than 700 years before He brought about an event that shed new light on what He said in the first place? It seems so. And therein is the Spirit's message to us as Christmas draws nearer by the day.

Whether you are new to Mass or have been coming your whole life, you probably know the biblical Christmas story pretty well. You probably already know what it "means." You might even be tempted to zone out a bit as the familiar stories are read yet again. Don't do it! The Word of God is living and active (see Hebrews 4:12), and God has a track record of saying something new with the same old words. Don't hide behind Ahaz's false piety claiming that God would not speak to you in a new and clearly relevant way through the Christmas Scriptures. Isaiah spoke of Emmanuel, which means "God is with us," and that means you, too. If God is with you, He probably has something to say to you, too. Let him who has ears hear.

LIFETEEN divine grace parish

LifeTeen will be on break through the Christmas holiday. We look forward to gathering again in the New Year! Until then, may this season be filled with joy, peace, and the light of Christ.

A Christmas Prayer

Lord Jesus, as we celebrate Your birth, fill our hearts with hope and joy. Keep our community close to You during this holy season, and guide us into the New Year with faith and love. Amen.

This faith-filled experience features dynamic speakers, live music, and powerful worship, plus a full day of fun at Cedar Point! More than just a trip, the conference is a chance to grow in faith, discover your purpose, and connect with friends who share the journey.

JOURNEY'S END FOR OUR PILGRIMS

The Faith on Fire pilgrims are home, reflecting on a wondrous Jubilee Year journey to Rome and Assisi. From golden sunsets to sacred basilicas, these photos capture moments where light, prayer, and history meet.

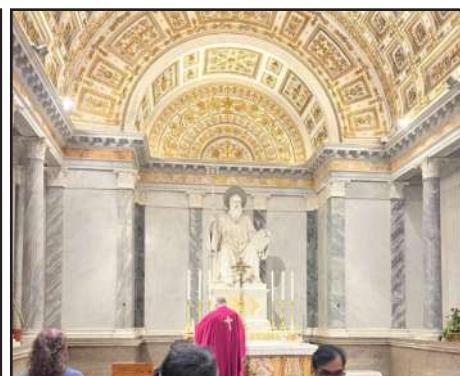

Assisi at sunset.

Basilica of Saint Clare, Assisi.

Mass at Santa Maria Maggiore.

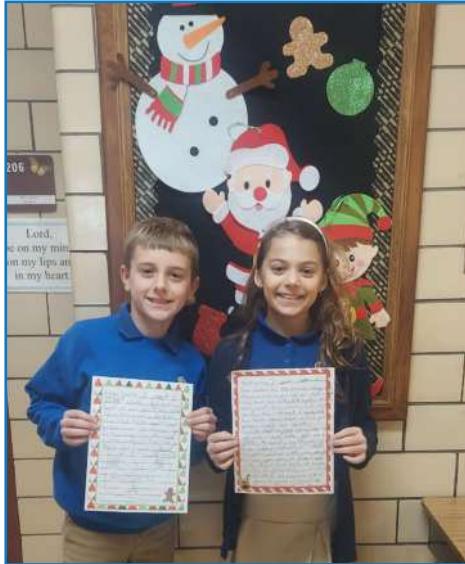

Mass at St. Paul Outside the Walls, Rome.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Students in several grades wrote letters to Santa Claus and sent them to his attention at the North Pole. Fourth graders Nolan and Isabella hold up their letters before dropping them in the mail.

ADVENT TREE

As the Advent season continues, our students have been counting down the days. To mark each day, they add decorated Christmas bulbs to the Advent tree. It's been a beautiful, visual marker for the children.

COLUMBIAN EXCHANGE

While students are eagerly awaiting Christmas Day and the birth of Jesus, there is still a lot of learning going on! Fifth grade students paired up in Social Studies to recreate the Columbian Exchange, discovering how trade routes increased the availability of spices, plants, and animals between the New World and the Old World.

DECK THE HALLS (AND HALLWAYS)

Our kindergarteners have been busy decorating the hallways with their festive artwork. Sweet little gnomes are a favorite, as Anna shows us.

Christmas Prayer

“On this day of joy, we are all called to contemplate the Child Jesus, who gives hope once again to every person on the face of the earth. By His grace, let us with our voices and our actions give witness to solidarity and peace. Merry Christmas to all!”

Pope Francis, Christmas 2016

Warm Christmas Wishes From Our Clergy

Dear Divine Grace parishioners,
Thank you for your constant support, prayers, and encouragement as your seminarian and now deacon! This Christmas season may we encounter the joy and wonder of the humility and majesty of this story above all stories and child born to save. May we be other Christs as His brothers and sisters, sharing this good news unto spiritual multiplication and fruitfulness. Merry Christmas to all!

Peace and joy,
Deacon Erik

With the hustle and bustle of the holiday season winding down, perhaps you might take some quiet time to sit and gaze on your nativity scene and whisper a prayer to God the Father for the most perfect gift we could ever receive—His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, our salvation. May you and your loved ones experience the peace and joy of this Christmas season. If you are a visitor, know that you are always welcome to worship with us. Merry Christmas to all.

See you in church,
Deacon Joe

Thank you for being Divine Grace in my life always, but especially this year. It has been an honor and a privilege to be your priest for another year. May you have a Blessed Christmas and a healthy New Year.

Father Gallagher

Merry Christmas everyone!
May the birth of the Lord bring you and your family great joy and hope this Christmas.

Father Joe

The Advent and Christmas season is a wonderful time in our Catholic faith when we await the Newborn Christ with an emotional combination of prayerful repentance, excited anticipation, and most of all, Hope.

This past year we have shared happiness and loss as a parish, but we have done so as friends who have been present in sadness and laughed side by side in joy. May this wonderful season help us to see the how important our parish is to each of us as we continue to journey in the mission God has for us.

From my family to yours have a Blessed Merry Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Deacon Don
