Happy New Year

Whatever your experience of 2025, I pray that you have a good New Year in 2026. Christians bring joy and hope to society because we know that Jesus Christ is the King of Kings. Even in our suffering, sickness, family divisions, economic hardships, social and political turmoil, and the day-to-day routine, if we remain close to Jesus, He remains close to us. Blessings for a great New Year!

Welcome Deacon Frank

Bishop Eckman has assigned a permanent deacon to our parish effective this week. Deacon Frank Bursic was ordained in 2020. He comes to us from Holy Family Parish in Plum, Oakmont and Verona where he served in a variety of parish ministries. He has over 45 years of experience in the energy and power industries and has been married to his wife Karen for more than 40 years. They have three daughters and five grandchildren and now live in Zelienople. Welcome, Deacon Frank—we look forward to your ministry.

Epiphany – Little Christmas

The Church celebrates the beginning of Jesus' ministry as He moved the three wise men to visit the manger where they offered the gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The "epiphany" is that the mission of the Church is to reach out to all peoples of this world to announce the Good News that Jesus has come for our salvation. The Church doesn't simply gaze upon the Crib or the Cross but rather lives the mysteries of what Jesus has to say to us. His miracles would confirm the presence of the Kingdom of God and the Eucharist is our participation in the events of Jesus' life.

Christmas Season Still Underway

Christmas does not end until next Sunday when we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus. So, in the meantime, keep offering Christmas greetings to your family, friends, co-workers, and neighbors.

Saint John Neumann

The entire Church in the United States celebrates this former priest who served in Pittsburgh and used to visit a German orphanage on Troy Hill that would later become North Catholic High School. He eventually was appointed the Archbishop of Philadelphia, ushering in a vibrant Catholic Church for the people of that city. He would die of exhaustion for his tireless ministry. We celebrate his feast day on Monday, January 5.

Indoor Parish Picnic – Mark Your Calendar

A father-daughter duo singing pop tunes from the '60s and '70s, and country pop from the '80s, '90s and 2000s, Mark and Anna, known as The Wilmett Duo, are parishioners and play at local establishments. They will entertain us at a parish picnic on Saturday, February 7, at 6:30 pm at Saint Gregory's Blue Room. There is no charge. We will provide beer, wine, water, and light refreshments. You are welcome to bring your own food basket. Come and enjoy an evening of song and celebration!

Holy Doors

Close on Grace-filled Jubilee Year

Jubilee 2025 officially ends on January 6, completing an extraordinary year in the life of the Church globally, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, and for Divine Grace Parish. We saw history made with the election of the first American pope, followed by the installation of a new bishop in our diocese, while dozens of area Catholics made pilgrimages to Rome to witness the canonization of the first millennial saint.

Not to mention a deacon from Divine Grace Parish serving in Saint Peter's Basilica.

“We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us,” Pope Francis declared in opening the Jubilee Year with the theme Pilgrims of Hope. “(To) help everyone gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart, and far-sighted vision.”

After Pope Francis' death on April 21 at age 88, Pope Leo XIV was elected as the first pontiff from the United States. On July 14, Bishop Mark Eckman became the 13th Bishop of Pittsburgh.

Divine Grace parishioners Hayley and Tony Grese were among the pilgrims who journeyed to Rome to attend the September 7 canonization of Blessed Carlo Acutis and Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. The Italian laymen were the first saints proclaimed by Pope Leo, with Blessed Acutis becoming the first millennial saint. Also in Saint Peter's Square – Divine Grace parishioner Sam Buchanan, studying in Rome.

In December, young adults from Faith on Fire made their pilgrimage to Rome and Assisi, venerating the relic of Saint Acutis.

Back home, Divine Grace parishioner Paul Foster led pious pilgrimages to Masses at churches in Beaver Falls, Butler, Waynesburg, New Castle and Washington, PA. “It helps you see how universal the Church is,” Paul said.

A Jubilee Year highlight for Deacon Jeff Ludwikowski came during a March pilgrimage to Rome and Assisi with Bishop Eckman, who was asked to preside at the English language Mass in Saint Peter's Basilica. Deacon Jeff served as Deacon of the Word.

“It was my most awesome experience in nearly 14 years as a deacon,” he said.

The Holy Doors will reopen for the next Jubilee in 2033, marking the 2,000th anniversary of Jesus Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

Greetings from Holy Spirit Parish in Mexico

The pastor of a parish in Mexico continues to serve God's people with generous support from the faithful at Saint Ferdinand. On All Souls Day, Father Rudy Valenzuela held a blessing at the local cemetery for those who have no one to pray over them.

Saint Ferdinand outreach coordinator Walt Scott and his wife Wilma recently visited Father Rudy at Holy Spirit Parish in San Luis Rio Colorado, Mexico. Since 2011, Saint Ferdinand has provided funding to their sister parish, with volunteers helping to build a medical clinic, church, classrooms, and two chapels, including this chapel next to the cemetery.

"Thank you for your continued prayers for our friends in Mexico," Walt said.

You can follow Holy Spirit Parish on Facebook at "Parroquia Del Espiritu Santo."

Preparing for Tomorrow

Education sessions to explain The Fund for Divine Grace Parish were well-received and gifts are now being made as parishioners learn more about this new way to build a lasting legacy.

The Fund is an endowment created through the new Catholic Foundation for Greater Pittsburgh. It offers a permanent source of support for our parish, making giving easier through long-term, short-term, and quasi endowments.

Common legacy gifts include estate commitments such as:

- Bequests and retirement plans
- Designations of life insurance policies
- Personal or corporate matching gifts
- Charitable – gift annuities, remainder trusts, and lead trusts

Legacy gifts usually cost donors nothing during their lifetimes because they typically are funded with assets. The principal is invested in the Fund and grows. The education presentation is available at <https://tinyurl.com/42f5rynt>. Learn more at www.cfgpitt.org.

Ministry Survey Update

Thanks to all who filled out our recent Parish Ministry Survey, which included three questions:

1. Is there a ministry you are interested in that you believe is not currently offered at Divine Grace Parish?
2. Is there a Catholic topic you would like to learn about in our parish?
3. What other suggestions or comments would you like to share?

We have compiled the responses and will provide them in detail in the February issue of our parish magazine. There were a couple of requests for ministries that are already being offered or getting underway:

- Bringing the Holy Eucharist to the homebound
- Raising a Catholic family/maintaining prayer in the family with Catholic formation for parents (see page 9)
- Encourage – a diocesan support group for family members of children or grandchildren with gender dysphoria

For more information, please contact Jennifer at jlivorse@divinegraceph.org or 724-776-2888, ext. 1210.

Happy Epiphany

— Isaiah 60:1-6 —

We have been reading from the Prophet Isaiah for weeks now, but we have not yet considered the full scope of the book, which provides important context for our first reading. Isaiah was a prophet in the southern kingdom of Judah in the 700s B.C. when the northern kingdom of Israel was being wiped out and the southern kingdom of Judah was being reduced, both at the hands of the Assyrian Empire. Much of his message consists of warnings to several nations in the Middle East, the most important of which were the kingdoms of Israel and Judah, God's Chosen People. Isaiah offers stark warnings to the people of the covenant about the consequences for continuing to break the covenant with the Lord: exile from the Promised Land. But Isaiah is no mere prophet of doom. He intersperses revelations about the coming Messianic King, and he concludes with twenty-six chapters about the eventual return from exile and the future glory of God's human family on earth.

It is in this final section on the future glory of Jerusalem that Isaiah writes our first reading. He foresees a time when the glory of the Lord will shine over all God's people, one might even say like a bright star in the night sky, and will attract the nations who will come to Jerusalem with gifts that sound very familiar to Christian ears: gold and frankincense. When this prophecy eventually is fulfilled, when magi representing the nations file into Jerusalem with their caravans and camels proclaiming the praises of the Lord, they bright with them gifts of gold and frankincense along with myrrh. In addition to their symbolic import, these gifts represented the tools of the magi's trade, their very source of sustenance. These pagans symbolically offered their lives to walk by the light of the Lord. What about you? What about me?

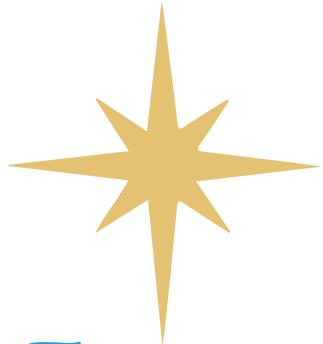

This week, the Spirit invites us, through the voice of Isaiah, to let the glory of the Lord shine upon us and shine through us. You do not have to leave this nation to be a light to the nations. "Those people," the outsiders and the not-good-enoughs, are all around us, and the Lord wants us to bring the light of his coming, of his presence, of his salvation to your fallen away neighbor, your cousin with same sex attraction, your coworker who drives you crazy. The nations will walk by the light of the Lord, and that light is supposed to shine through us.

Perhaps part of why the nations flocked to the Christchild was because they did not have to deal with the cranky church people that you and I can be at times. The magi did not exactly hurry back to spend more time with Herod and his priests who knew the correct religion answer but did not do anything about it. Rather than deal with the "insiders" who were obscuring the light, they went straight to the source of the light itself. Jesus is attractive. Faith is attractive. A life lived in relationship with Jesus is attractive. May we be less like Herod and his priests and more like Mary and Joseph who opened their cave and their home to whomever was drawn by the light of the world to their doorstep.

CHRISTMAS PERFORMANCE

Saint Gregory's Four-Year Old Preschoolers wrapped up 2025 with a lovely performance. They were very animated while singing Christmas songs, and beautifully depicted the birth of Jesus.

A BIG THANK YOU!

We are so appreciative for all the generous donations in response to our teachers' Amazon Wish Lists. The support is more than we could have asked for. Thank you to all our donors for your kind charity. Second graders Riley, Charlee, Addie and Grayson made thank you cards to help express their feelings.

SPREADING CHRISTMAS CHEER

Our 2nd and 3rd Graders colored dozens of Christmas Placemats for residents of Passavant Community near Saint Gregory School. They were delivered in time for Christmas Day, bringing brightness and joy to all.
