From Christmas to Ordinary Time

The Christmas Season concludes with John the Baptist baptizing Jesus in the Jordan which marks the beginning of Jesus' earthly ministry. The sacrament of baptism is also a reminder of the beginning of our own spiritual journey. Do you know the date of your baptism? This is your homework assignment this week. Until Ash Wednesday we will be in the season of Ordinary Time in which we can reflect on how the great celebrations of Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany can “order” our lives in the person of Jesus Christ. The word “Ordinary” is from the Latin “ordo” which means to “order” or “anchor.”

Many Thanks

The last several weeks have been busy getting our parish ready for Christmas and the New Year. Thanks to the many people who decorated our churches and now will undecorate. Thanks for your generosity with the giving, shining star and angel trees, and other donations that helped needy families. Many long hours went into the liturgies so thanks to the choirs, cantors, and instrumentalists. Thanks as well for your financial support of our parish.

Make It a Great New Year

In five weeks, we will begin Lent. So, let's start this new year with an enhanced commitment to our spiritual life. For example, spending time before the Blessed Sacrament, prayerful reading of the scriptures, intentional practice of the works of mercy, acts of penance and fasting, praying the Rosary, etc.

Getting Ready for Lenten Fish Dinners

Save the dates – there will be a fish fry on Ash Wednesday as well as the Fridays in Lent at Saint Ferdinand Church and on Ash Wednesday at Holy Redeemer Church. If you would like to volunteer to assist at these dinners, email Jennifer Livorse at jlivorse@divinegracepg.org.

She will send your information to the chairs of the fish dinners at each of our churches.

Oldenski Hall Renovation Meeting

There will be a town hall meeting on Monday, Jan. 12 at 6:30 pm for parishioners who are interested in learning about how we may proceed with the renovation of the hall at Saint Ferdinand. There have been planning meetings for the past several months and the group will share some recommendations. All are welcome!

Happy Birthday, Tom

This upcoming Saturday, parishioner Tom Streicher will celebrate his 100th birthday. Tom continues to drive himself to Mass and lives a very active life. God Bless you, Tom!

College Students – Have a Great Semester

As you return to school, may the Lord bless you this semester. Please keep in your schedule weekly Mass, regular confession, and living your faith at school. God bless – let me know if you need anything.

A Spiritual Rebirth in Jesus

Thomas Keiser gets excited talking about the sacrament of Baptism.

The Divine Grace parishioner and former NFL player, along with wife Mana, recently had their son Raphael baptized by Father Jim Wehner.

"It's such a joy having our children baptized," Thomas said. "In preparation class we learned about how baptism brings you into the mystical body of Christ. How amazing is that!"

Joyce Gaydos, godmother, and dad Thomas witness Fr. Jim baptizing Raphael.

The Baptism of the Lord is an important feast day, initiating the first sacrament of the New Covenant, essential for salvation. It signifies a spiritual rebirth, the start of our Christian journey and relationship with God.

Our own baptism connects us to Jesus' baptism, giving us new life and sanctifying grace, allowing us to receive other sacraments and share in His divine life and purpose. "In baptism, Jesus was showing us what to do," Thomas noted. "He didn't have original sin, but it washes away our original sin and is the beginning of our sacramental life."

It is through baptism that we are united with Jesus, sharing in the salvation He won by His death and Resurrection. God helps us grow in the virtues of faith, hope, and love, strengthens us in temptations and difficulties, makes our good works fruitful, and encourages us to live and proclaim the Gospel.

Just as Jesus was revealed in His baptism, we are called to live out our new life so others can see Jesus in us. "Our faith is so deep, it's limitless," Thomas said.

Thomas with wife Mana, who is from Tonga in the South Pacific, with their families.

Looking Toward the Future

Parishioners have begun to make legacy gifts to The Fund for Divine Grace Parish, building an endowment for future needs. Established through the Catholic Foundation for Greater Pittsburgh, Divine Grace is one of the first parishes in our diocese to benefit from a permanent source of support that will grow and produce annual distributions as needed. It will create greater impact through long-term and short-term investments.

Common legacy gifts include estate commitments such as bequests and retirement plans, designations of life insurance policies, matching gifts, and trusts and annuities. Because they are typically funded through assets instead of income, these donations usually cost donors nothing during their lifetimes. The principal is invested through the foundation and grows over time.

Twice a year, the parish can take small distributions if needed, but the principal remains untouched. The Fund is an opportunity to ensure that the next generation of Divine Grace parishioners will benefit from a vibrant, growing faith community. An endowment doesn't replace the weekly offering or the Annual Parish Appeal for diocesan-wide needs – it creates stability and growth to support our mission and ministries.

The Fund for Divine Grace Parish is a new way to sustain our parish, advance our faith, and endow our future. More information will be shared in the coming weeks. We invite you to visit <https://partner.freewill.com/cfgpitt> to create a will and/or make a legacy gift. Learn more at www.cfgpitt.org.

Called By Name

The Diocese Vocations Office is coordinating an initiative where parishioners submit names of single Catholic males, starting in the 9th grade, who may be open to discerning the priesthood. Divine Grace Parish will pass along those names to the Vocations Office. Then Bishop Eckman will write each person, inviting them to a dinner at the seminary in March. Please email the names of those men who might want to meet the Bishop and learn more about the priesthood to Fr. Jim at jwehner@diopitt.org.

Unpacking the Word

— Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7 —

Our first reading contains the first of Isaiah's famous Servant Songs found in Isaiah 42:1-4, 49:1-6, 50:4-9, and 52:13-53:12. These songs are about, and at times in the voice of the mysterious figure whom Isaiah calls simply "the Servant of the Lord." The Servant is the embodiment of faithful Israel, and as such He has a mission to gather those who have been scattered, to bring people back into covenant relationship with their Creator. In later Servant Songs, Isaiah will reveal that the Servant will also suffer for the sins of the people (see Isaiah 53:4).

The Lord's message through Isaiah has clear echoes in the baptism and ministry of Jesus recorded in the Gospels. The voice from the heavens at Jesus' baptism quotes this passage nearly verbatim: "my chosen one with whom I am pleased." The Lord also points out that this servant figure is the one "upon whom I have put My spirit," and the Gospels recall that at Jesus' baptism this happened "in bodily form like a dove" (Luke 3:22). The final line of Isaiah's message for this week speaks to Jesus' ministry of forgiving sins and healing blindness. All of this prophesied some six centuries prior.

There is a significant change in wording when the Lord echoes what He has already said through Isaiah at Jesus' baptism. Through Isaiah, He refers to His servant, and at the baptism He refers to His beloved Son. Of course the wording of sonship has to do with Jesus' core identity as the Second Person of the Trinity, but it also has to do with us as little christs. To serve the Lord is to become His beloved daughter or son, His close family. We typically see sonship and servitude as very different things, but the first Christians did not. St. Paul often bragged about being the slave of the Lord (see Titus 1:1 among many others). Mary referred to herself as the "handmaid of the Lord" (Luke 1:38). And you and I are both servants of God and children of God (see 1 John 3:1).

All of this is by the grace of our own baptism, which receives its power from the One who entered the waters of baptism along the banks of the Jordan River.

Through baptism, we share in Christ's mission as both His servants and His beloved children. The same Spirit who descended upon Jesus at the Jordan strengthens us to live out our calling today.
