Thank You Father Gallagher

This year marks the 30th anniversary of Father Gallagher's ministry at Saint Ferdinand and now Divine Grace Parish. His faithful, dedicated service has been a blessing for all of us. He continues to exercise his priestly ministry with joy, pastoral care, and sincerity. Please join me in praying for Father Gallagher, thanking the Lord for his vocation and all that he does for us. Ad Multos Annos!

Congratulations Steve!

Bishop Eckman has announced that one of our parishioners, Steve Blanco, has been appointed to the newly created Catholic Foundation for Greater Pittsburgh as Chair of the Board of Directors. Steve and his wife Pam typically worship at Saint Gregory Church and serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Congratulations Steve and thanks for your ministry and service to the Church.

Welcome Bishop Zubik

This year marks the 115th anniversary of Saint Gregory School. Bishop Zubik will open our celebrations with Mass next Friday, January 30 at 1:30 pm at the church. Following Mass, Bishop Zubik will rededicate the original school bell which has been relocated outside the parish house.

Organ Dedication Concert

Also on Friday, at 7:00 pm, the refurbished organ and pipes at Saint Gregory Church will be dedicated with a concert led by some of the best organists in western Pennsylvania. All are welcome. There will be a reception in the Bergman Events Center following the concert.

Organ Fund Update

Thanks to those who have contributed toward the restoration of the historic organ at Saint Gregory Church. About 100 families have donated $456,272 toward the project. The overall cost is $600,000. For those who would like to help, donations are still being accepted.

The Divine Grace Parish Fund

You have been reading in the bulletin for the past couple of months about The Divine Grace Parish Fund that has been created at the Catholic Foundation for Greater Pittsburgh. Thank you to those who have already contributed to the Fund and those who intend to support our parish in your will and estate planning.

Car Raffle Proceeds

Thanks to all those who took part in the recent raffle for the Chevy Trax LT. Congratulations to Brooke Fortune who is the winner. The raffle raised $58,141. The reduced cost of the vehicle was $25,541. Therefore, our parish netted $32,600. Again, thank you!

Called By Name

Bishop Eckman is inviting all single men beginning in the 9th grade to discuss priestly vocations at a dinner at diocesan pastoral center. I am pleased that we will give him at least 70 names of people the staff has identified. Please email me directly with names of men you think might be interested in this dinner which is scheduled for March 1. Bishop Eckman will send a letter to each person to invite them to this dinner.

THREE DECADES of Compassionate Service

When Father John Gallagher arrived at Saint Ferdinand Parish in January 1996, he had already served as a priest for 28 years. Parishioners at his previous parish were sad to see him go. Members of Saint Ferdinand soon learned why.

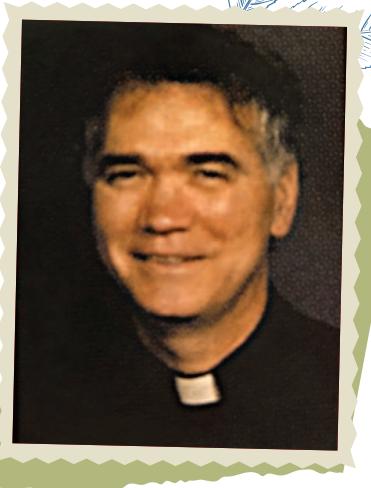

The 30th anniversary of Father Gallagher's ministry at Saint Ferdinand, now Divine Grace Parish – is a remarkable milestone in a life of humble service that began on Mount Washington in Pittsburgh. He graduated from Saint Mary of the Mount grade school and high school. In 1964, he earned a bachelor's degree from Saint Vincent College, then a degree and licentiate in sacred theology from Saint Mary's Seminary and University in Baltimore.

Father Gallagher was ordained in 1968 and assigned as parochial vicar at Saint Thomas and Saint Michael parishes in Braddock. In 1974, he went to Our Lady of Grace Parish in Scott Township, and six years later became parochial vicar at Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Bellevue. In 1985 he was named pastor at Assumption, and 11 years later was sent to lead the fast-growing Saint Ferdinand Parish.

Three decades on, Father Gallagher continues to minister to the “little, day-to-day things that are important to people,” as the Pittsburgh Catholic reported in marking his Golden Jubilee in 2018, such as hospital visits, going to funeral homes, visiting school classes, and making communion calls.

To men discerning the priesthood, Father Gallagher asks them to “be gentle and kind to people, be able to work with others, appreciate the role and talents of women in the church, make preaching your number one priority, and remember, it’s God’s church, not yours.”

Thank you, Father Gallagher! Happy 30th Anniversary, and Happy Birthday!

*Fr. Gallagher

The Fund for Divine Grace Parish

With the new year comes new opportunities to leave a lasting legacy for our faith community. Gifts are now being made to The Fund for Divine Grace Parish, an endowment created through the new Catholic Foundation for Greater Pittsburgh. It offers a permanent source of support for our parish, making giving easier through long-term, short-term, and quasi endowments.

Common legacy gifts include estate commitments such as:

- Bequests and retirement plans
- Designations of life insurance policies
- Personal or corporate matching gifts
- Charitable – gift annuities, remainder trusts, and lead trusts

Legacy gifts usually cost donors nothing during their lifetimes because they typically are funded with assets. The principal is invested in the Fund and grows. Learn more at www.cfgpitt.org. To create a will or make a legacy gift, visit <https://partner.freewill.com/cfgpitt>.

Next Steps for Oldenski Hall Renovation

Parishioners are reviewing feedback from the January 12 town hall, which highlighted the need for a larger kitchen and more storage in the multi-use hall that hosted 189 events last year. Three options are under consideration: expanding the Saint Ferdinand offices with a covered walkway; building out Oldenski Hall into the east parking lot with a relocated kitchen and interior renovations; or constructing a new one-story building near the Annex, though this option exceeds the available $2.7 million. Fr. Jim emphasized that supporting parish ministries remains the priority.

Disciple Maker Index Survey

Last week we announced the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) survey will be offered again from February 18, Ash Wednesday, through March 29. The main goal is to invite parishioners to reflect on where they are on their journey of discipleship and gauge how effective Divine Grace Parish is in supporting that journey since the DMI was done in Lent of 2023.

The survey consists of questions in several key areas, including members' spiritual growth, beliefs, and how our parish helps them connect with the community and evangelize. It also assesses satisfaction with their overall parish experience, the pastor, and activities. All individual responses are kept confidential. Look for more details on how to take the DMI survey in the coming weeks.

If you would like a written statement of your 2025 parish financial contributions, please provide seven days' notice for processing. Call the parish office at Saint Ferdinand: 724-776-2888 with your request. Statements may be picked up or mailed.

It's also the Flame of Love Feast Day, celebrated at Saint Ferdinand Church beginning with Rosary and Confession at noon, Holy Mass at 1:00 pm, then Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Rosary of the Seven Sorrows of Mary

The Seven Sorrows Rosary dates back to the 14th century when Our Lady appeared to Saint Bridget of Sweden. It was revived in Kibeho, Rwanda in the 1980s when the Blessed Mother asked that the rosary be reintroduced to the world and prayed daily, but especially on Tuesdays and Fridays. Seven graces are promised to those who honor Mary. The Share the Prayer Rosary group will be making Seven Sorrows rosaries available in each church narthex at the start of Lent. A brochure also will be available with background, prayers, and instructions.

Thank You from Tom Streicher

Tom offers his appreciation for all who celebrated and wished him well on the occasion of his 100th Birthday on January 17. Tom's family planned a fabulous party at Oldenski Hall which was attended by many relatives and close friends from his parish family. "God has granted me a long life, He's kept my mind clear, He's given me a great family, and a great host of friends," said Tom. Congratulations!

Adult Mass Servers

For the past three years we have used a variety of ways to invite our young people from third grade to college to become altar servers. More than 50 altar servers have signed up at Saint Gregory Church and about 10 at Holy Redeemer

Church. We have not been as successful at Saint Ferdinand Church, although we will continue our efforts. In the meantime, we are inviting any adult to be trained on how to serve a weekend Mass at Saint Ferdinand Church – please email Fr. Jim if you are interested.

— Isaiah 8:23-9:3 —

Today is Word of God Sunday, a relatively new feast in the Church that celebrates the Lord's revelation to us in the Scriptures. It is an especially fitting day to spend some time resting with the Lord and pondering the readings from Mass.

During Isaiah's ministry, the Assyrian Empire began to dismantle the twelve tribes in the northwestern part of the Holy Land, specifically in "the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali," along the Sea of Galilee. According to Assyrian records, Shalmaneser deported nearly 15,000 Israelites in 721 B.C. beginning with those in this region. They never returned and eventually intermarried with people of other nations in the vast Assyrian Empire, becoming known to history as the lost tribes of Israel. It was indeed a day of darkness, gloom, and distress when ten out of twelve tribes of God's People disappeared from history. And yet, when the "great light," Jesus the Messiah, came to restore Israel, he began the restoration right where it all first fell apart.

When you look back at your life and notice the moments of spiritual unfaithfulness that we all have, where does it all start to fall apart for you? Perhaps that is just the place where the Lord wants to begin restoring you. Did you have a run in with a bad priest? Perhaps the Lord wants to bring a good priest into your life. Did you have a difficult relationship with your parents that caused you to rebel a bit? Perhaps it is through your own parental role or in relationship with another parental figure that the Lord wants to begin a restoration. Is it a struggle with lust? Maybe the Lord is calling you to a deeper love that will not allow you to use people for pleasure. He began Israel's restoration where it all fell apart. He may want to do just the same thing with you and with me.

This message from Isaiah and its historical fulfillment in the life of Jesus shows us that the Lord is not disinterested in the details of your story. He was thoughtful enough to begin Israel's restoration not just anywhere, but exactly where it all fell apart. He wants to transform the darkness and gloom of your life and mine into "abundant joy and great rejoicing." The "day of Midian" is a reference to Gideon's highly improbable victory over the Midianites in Judges 7:1-25, a victory that resulted in forty years of rest (see Judges 8:28). The abundant joy that the Lord wants to usher us into may also seem improbable from our vantage point, and it also involves entering into his rest (see Hebrews 4:10).

Where do you need restoration? Where is the darkness and gloom in your heart? Today, the Spirit invites you to turn it over to him, to let Jesus live there as he lived in Galilee so long ago.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

We kick off our annual celebration of Catholic Schools Week having benefited from 115 years of students being challenged in the classroom, growing spiritually, and encouraged to serve others. Accepting applications on Monday, January 26, Saint Gregory School provides a 3 & 4-year-old Preschool, Full Day Kindergarten through 8th Grade, and extended care from 7:30 am to 6:00 pm. We serve Zelienople, Jackson Twp., Cranberry Twp., and surrounding areas in Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, and Lawrence counties. Call 724-452-9731 or visit <https://stgregzelie.org>

UNDER THE MICROSCOPE

Our 7th Grade students began learning about microscopes. First they were taught proper care and handling of the microscope. Then they studied different bacteria up close to see how they differ.

BOOK BUDDIES

This is a favorite activity for our students. Third graders read aloud to First graders once a week, enhancing their reading skills while helping to build confidence. First graders focus on listening while drawing a picture about the story.

STEELERS DAY

PRINCIPAL FOR THE DAY

Kinsley, winner of the silent auction Tailgate for a Cause, was Principal for the Day – well, for the morning. She helped to welcome students getting off buses, worked in the office with Mrs. O'Shea, and announced that all students had no school the next day – Saturday!

FAVORITE MEMORIES with Father Gallagher

Father Gallagher is a gift from God in our lives. His kindness and compassion, giving you sympathy and love. He's always present, working alongside staff and parishioners at the festival, food bank and many other events and ministries. He's also very humble, with a heart of gold."

Joe and Rocky Renaud
Parishioners

Over the past three decades, parishioners have gotten to know Fr. Gallagher and his priestly gifts. We asked a few who know him well to share some stories and insights.

Father Gallagher has a way of lifting people up. I knew a parishioner who was facing a serious health issue and was very anxious. I asked Father to speak to her, and afterwards she was calm and at peace. He always seems to say the right thing. He is loved by all. We trust him."

Vera Belfiore
Sacristan

He said my wife's funeral 15 years ago. During the eulogy, Father Gallagher said, 'I understand that Gladys was a gambler. She took risks in her job as a nurse, in marrying Tom, and in converting to the Catholic faith. Well, today Gladys hit the jackpot,' referring to her heavenly reward."

Tom Streicher
Parishioner

We played baseball for two different schools on Mt. Washington and became good friends. He loved my mom's Italian cooking. After the seminary we served together as deacons, and later in a parish. Fr. Gallagher has always been concerned about helping people, and always makes time for them. He's such a good priest."

Fr. John Marcucci
Good friend and seminary classmate

He is a very humble, sincere, kind, and thoughtful man. He gives great homilies – they are concise and relate to every day situations. We are so fortunate to have Father Gallagher with us."

Elsie Bonvenuto
Parishioner

Father Gallagher is so down to earth, you can talk to him like a friend. He visited us in the hospital. He never forgets us."
