One does not live on bread alone.

– Luke 4:4

First Sunday of Lent

Temptation is the theme of the readings as we begin our Lenten journey. As Adam and Eve fell to temptation, and as Jesus began His public ministry with Satan tempting Him in the desert, we are called to reflect on how the Evil One brings temptations into our lives today. A few days ago when ashes were imposed on our foreheads, we heard the command to “repent and believe.” Pride is at the root of all sins because we can sometimes believe we have more insight and knowledge beyond the Church and the Gospel to justify our actions. Humility is the virtue we can pray for to eradicate the sin of pride.

Invite a Friend to Mass

There is a trend in the United States of people returning to their religion, including a resurgence in the Catholic Church with increased Mass attendance and conversion to the faith. As we celebrate Lent, consider inviting someone you know who does not worship on weekends to Mass at one of our three churches.

Returning Palms

We have bins in the back of each church for you to return your blessed palms from Palm Sunday last year. Please return them so we can burn them according to practice.

Saint Ferdinand Adult Altar Servers

I am inviting any adult to be trained on how to serve a weekend Mass at Saint Ferdinand Church – please email me if you are interested. As always, we continue to invite young people starting in third grade to serve as well.

Bring Your Sufferings to Jesus' Sufferings

Spiritually walk with Jesus as the Church prays the Stations of the Cross every Friday at 7:00 pm at all three of our churches. Additionally, Stations will also be prayed after the Friday 8:30 am Mass at Saint Ferdinand, and at 2:30 pm at Saint Gregory with the school students.

Organ Restoration Update

The St. Gregory Organ Project is nearly complete. We have raised $550,000. The cost is $600,000; we are still accepting donations. Many thanks.

Annual Parish Appeal Underway

Thank you to all who have made a commitment for 2026 to Parish Appeal which supports both diocesan and parish ministries. If you have not made your pledge or payment, you can do so in your parish envelope or at <https://divinegracepgh.org/give>.

Remembering Our Parish

As you have read, many of you have received information from me, we have an opportunity to support a new parish endowment through the Catholic Foundation of Greater Pittsburgh. I am very grateful that Divine Grace Parish has received commitments of $1.5 million to date. Thank you for remembering the parish in your estate planning. If you do not have a will, visit <https://partner.freewill.com/cfgpitt>.

Supporting Our Bulletin Sponsors

The last four pages of our bulletin list the sponsors who make our bulletin possible. We do not pay anything for the production of the weekly bulletin. The printing and shipping is made possible by the sponsors. Please read over those pages and consider supporting those businesses.

Instead of 'Giving Up' for Lent — Giving Back

Parish fish fries are a longtime Lenten tradition. But to Dr. Mike Renk, wife Jen and their team of 50+ volunteers, it's also a way to live out an important practice of Lent...acts of charity in sharing their time and talent.

"We always think about what we might give up for Lent," Mike says. "But this is our way of giving back to our church."

Sharing God's gifts often comes through the distribution of money – and parishioners support the Parish Fish Fry at Saint Ferdinand by attending and this year helping with sponsorships to help offset rising food costs. But the key is the purpose behind it.

"The more money we raise," Mike notes, "the more outreach the parish can do in the community."

Fish Fry dinners at Saint Gregory School on Fridays in Lent, and Ash Wednesday at Holy Redeemer Church also help fulfill the Lenten practice of almsgiving or charity, along with the Holy Redeemer Pizza Sale. Many students also volunteer to meet their school requirement for service hours.

Prayer, fasting, and works of charity all help lead to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully. "Everyone has a role," Mike says. "Some cook, some prepare or serve the food. Others unload the truck, wash dishes, handle the drinks or check out. We all find our niche."

Do You have a Will?

According to a recent survey, only 40 percent of American adults have a Will or Trust. There are plenty of reasons why people delay such an important decision, but if you put off your estate planning for too long, your family and favorite causes could be affected. Create your no-cost will at <https://partner.freewill.com/cfg-pitt>, offered by The Fund for Divine Grace Parish. Parish Appeal Underway

Divine Grace parishioners are invited to support the 2026 Parish Appeal, which features the theme, "What I Have I Give." It refers to Acts 3:6 when Peter is asked for money by a crippled beggar at the gate of the temple. Peter replied, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I have I give to you." Then he healed the man.

We are all called to give, even when it doesn't seem like much. God asks us to offer what we can, in faith, and trust that he will multiply it.

Your generosity to Parish Appeal supports diocesan-wide ministries of service, formation, and pastoral care, including our seminarians, retired priests, and administrative services that parishes could not afford on their own. Thank you for your past support and prayerful consideration of the 2026 Parish Appeal.

Contribution Statements

If you would like a copy of your parish contribution statement for your income taxes, call the Saint Ferdinand office at 724-776-2888, ext. 1101.

Statements can be mailed or picked up at the office. If you give online, contact 866-930-4774, option 6, or donorsupport@parishsoft.com.

Family Fun Night March 21

The third and final Family Fun Night of the season is set for Saturday, March 21, starting at 6:00 pm at the Holy Redeemer Catholic Center. Enjoy fun, food and fellowship, and help welcome in Spring!

Vocations Council

The Divine Grace Parish Vocations Council works to encourage prayer and support for vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. Their next meeting is Wednesday, March 4 at 6:00 pm in Saint Ferdinand's Upper Room. Questions? vocations@divinegracepgh.org.

The Passion of the Christ

The story of the last 12 hours of Jesus Christ's life will be shown again on Palm Sunday, March 29, 6:00 pm at Holy Redeemer Catholic Center. The emotional film is often described as a "conversion of heart" experience, leading to a deeper commitment to the faith.

Unpacking the Word

Jason Gawaldo, Director for Evangelization & Catechetical Ministries

— Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7 —

The early chapters of the Book of Genesis are fascinating to say the least. Using what St. John Paul II called mythopoetic language, they describe real events at the dawn of creation and humanity's fall into sin, real events that, if we are honest, play out in our lives daily. We could spend the entirety of Lent meditating just on the first three chapters of the Bible.

The first portion of the First Reading this week comes from the Second Creation Story. That's right. There are two. The first one illustrates the supremacy of God, while this second one illustrates the intimacy of God. Rather than declaring man into existence, God rolls up his sleeves, shapes man with his own hands, and breathes his own breath, his Spirit, into man. Then he proceeds to fashion a home suitable for his incredible creation. That incredible creation is you. The Lord knows all the contours of your existence, and it is his own breath that keeps you in existence.

And what does the Lord's incredible creation do with this gift of life? We squander it at the instigation of the Devil. What follows in Genesis 3 is a playbook from the pits of hell. The man's job was to guard the garden, and yet this fire breathing serpent is allowed to enter and converse with his bride. Nahash in Hebrew is something quite a bit more fearsome than the garter snake from our picture Bibles. This is a direct assault on his mission as guardian. Without speaking to the man at all, the serpent has issued a dare to do his duty coupled with the not-so-subtle suggestion that the man will not do it. He issues that same wordless dare to you and me every day.

The serpent attacks the woman with a poisonous relationship, a friendly conversation with a fearsome dragon who calls God a liar who is holding out on her. God's clear and simple command not to eat from one tree has turned blurry. Did God really tell them not to eat from any tree? Can they even touch the tree of knowledge of good and evil? Can we really even know what God wants? The serpent then plants the seed of doubt about God's goodness and suggests that they can become like God but without God's help.

These will be the serpent's tactics throughout Lent and throughout the rest of our lives: suggesting that we not do our duty, poisoning relationships, turning clear commands blurry, doubting God's goodness, and trying to be gods ourselves. Praise God that in the aftermath of such rebellion on our part he promises a Redeemer to crush the head of the serpent (see Genesis 3:15). That Redeemer shows us how to resist the lures of the Devil. He atones for every sin from Eden onward on Good Friday, and then on Easter Sunday he even destroys the ultimate punishment for sin when he rises from the dead. These events happened at the dawn of human history, they happened two thousand years ago, and they are happening right now in your own heart.

115TH ANNIVERSARY MASS

Bishop Emeritus David Zubik helped St. Gregory School students, families, faculty, staff and visitors celebrate Catholic Schools Week and the 115th Anniversary of the founding of the school at a special Mass on February 13. The liturgy was followed by a blessing of the refurbished school bell outside the church.

St. Gregory School

first opened its doors on January 11, 1911, led by the Sisters of Saint Francis. Watch the video at <https://tinyurl.com/2wyy3fdf>

The 100th day of the school year came and our kids made sure to celebrate with activities and crafts. An absolute favorite for the First Grade was dressing up like they were 100 years old!

Our fifth graders experienced hands-on learning in STREAM-driven Discovery Centers.

Students used magnets, micro viewers and Borax. Here, Luke works on a circuit board project.

SERVE, SET, SPIKE!

A Catholic Schools Week tradition at Saint Gregory is the Staff vs. 8th Grade volleyball game. The staff played four sets—two vs. the boys and two more sets vs. the girls. The staff did not come out victorious. Divine Grace Parish's Michael Assaf and Jason Gawaldo (blue shirt) played with the staff. Nice assist!

PILLARS

The Creed (what we believe). It outlines the core beliefs of our Catholic faith, focusing on the Trinity and salvation history.

The Sacraments (how we worship). This section details the seven sacraments, the signs and instruments of God's grace in the life of a believer.

Morality/ Life in Christ (how we live). This pillar explores how to live according to the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes, focusing on loving God and neighbor.

Prayer (how we converse with God). This covers the importance of prayer, including the Lord's Prayer as a model for communion with God.

Together, the Four Pillars provide a foundational structure for Catholic teaching, faith formation, and daily life.
