Divine Mercy Sunday

Saint Pope John Paul II in 2000 named the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday to celebrate God's enduring and everlasting mercy that He desires for all of His creation. We hear in the Gospel this weekend how Saint Thomas came to believe in the Resurrected Lord because Jesus' Mercy was extended to him. We therefore do not give up on our family members and friends who do not worship the Lord or may even not believe in God. May our prayers and the Mercy of God bring them to conversion.

Divine Mercy Chaplet

The chaplet will be prayed at all three of our churches on Sunday, April 12 at 3:00 pm, the hour of Jesus' death. A plenary indulgence is gained either for the person praying or for a deceased person. To gain the indulgence, pray the chaplet at 3:00 pm. One should also have gone to confession either two weeks prior or within the next two weeks and have received Holy Communion free from any attachment to sin. Prayers for Pope Leo XIV should be offered (Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be).

The Glorious and Luminous Mysteries of the Holy Rosary

During Lent we appropriately reflected on the suffering of Jesus during the Stations of the Cross and through the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary. It is appropriate for us to pray the Rosary with the Glorious Mysteries – the Resurrection, the Ascension, the Outpouring of the Holy Spirit, the Assumption of the Blessed Mother, and the Coronation of the Blessed Mother as Queen of Heaven and Earth. And it also appropriate to reflect on Jesus' earthly ministry with the Luminous Mysteries – the Baptism of Jesus, the Miracle at the Wedding Feast, the Proclamation of the Kingdom of God, the Transfiguration of Jesus, and the Institution of the Holy Eucharist.

Thanks to our Liturgy Coordinators

Our Triduum and Easter celebrations were wonderful expressions of faith. Thanks to the parish liturgy committee, choirs and musicians, liturgical ministers, art and environment coordinators, and our faith formation team who prepared our new Catholics to enter into the Church.

Pick Up Your Festival Raffle Tickets

In the narthex of each of our three churches are envelopes for each household containing tickets for the annual Parish Family Festival Raffle in August. We are asking that you consider purchasing and/or selling the raffle tickets. Sold tickets can be left in the weekly offertory collection or dropped off at parish offices. Additional tickets are also available at parish offices. Thanks for your support.

Fish Fry and Pizza Efforts

I want to thank the many volunteers who made our fish fries a great success at Saint Ferdinand, Saint Gregory, and Holy Redeemer, along with the Lenten Pizza Sale. While these are fund-raisers, they also are occasions for the community to come together. A particular word of gratitude to the chairs of the events: Mike and Jen Renk, Sam Teolis, Andy Harmer, and Jackie Dimeo. We will report soon on the financial outcomes.

I ask that...prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

When reflecting on Jesus' Divine Mercy, Judy Abbs likes to ask two questions:

Are you being merciful to others?

Have you asked Jesus to share His merciful love with you?

"The ultimate love is to love yourself as much as Jesus loves you," Judy says. "As Saint Faustina wrote in her diary, 'I am the most miserable person, but He still loves me.'" Four years ago, Judy and her friends prayed the Chaplet over her dying mother on the evening before she passed away.

Saint Pope John Paul II established the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday when he canonized Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska in 2000. The Divine Mercy of Jesus was revealed to her by Christ Himself.

"We pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet five mornings a week before Mass at Holy Redeemer," says Betsy Petti of the Ladies of Charity.

"We encourage our members to pray it daily at 3:00 pm, and when we visit nursing homes we say it for anyone close to death. It's their last chance of salvation and mercy from God," she says.

Mary Samsa said they pray the Chaplet at Saint Ferdinand for those who don't know the love of God, for the souls in Purgatory, and for others. "Jesus asks us to pray for them," Mary says. "Faustina's job was to spread this devotion. Our Lord wants us to turn to Him and for all to have eternal salvation."

Judy leads the Divine Mercy Cenacle at Saint Gregory, which meets Thursday evenings in the school library. She refers to those two questions about being merciful to others and asking Jesus to share His merciful love, and offers a prayer that says in part:

Saint Faustina, pray for us † John Paul II, pray for us
† Jesus, I trust in You

SAINT FAUSTINA – APOSTLE OF MERCY

Divine Mercy, Sweet Relief for Anguished Hearts, I Trust in You.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet and image of the Divine Mercy date back to 1931, when Our Lord appeared to the holy mystic and future saint, Sister Faustina Kowalska, in her convent in Plock, Poland. Two rays were coming from His heart – one red and one white. Jesus told her to have this image painted with the inscription, “Jesus, I Trust in You.”

The red ray signifies the Blood that Jesus shed to save our souls and the white stands for the Water of grace which makes it righteous. He asked that this image of Himself be venerated.

I would encourage you to obtain The Diary of Saint Faustina written Sister Faustina in which she records the words of Jesus meant for everyone. Jesus expressed concern that the world no longer cares for His Mercy and relies on our own human capacities rather than the Mercy of God.

Saint John Paul II canonized Sister Faustina on April 30, 2000, the first saint to be canonized in the 21st century during the Great Jubilee Year. I was at her canonization which brought millions of people to Rome, many from Poland. She is known as the Apostle of Mercy.

Saint Faustina – Pray for Us!
- Fr. Jim

Welcoming Back Inactive Catholics

The Divine Grace Parish RETURN Ministry seeks to provide understanding and support in the frustration, anxiety, and even guilt felt when a child or other loved one drifts away from the Catholic Church. You may ask, "Did I give enough, could I have done more?" Many of us are in the same situation.

We have a choice – we can throw up our hands and give up, or we can begin to learn why this is happening and take positive steps toward bringing our family and friends back to the truth of our faith. Our next meeting is Sunday, April 24 at 1:00 pm in the Saint Gregory School Library.

Volunteers Needed

The gazebo at Saint Gregory Church is in need of repairs. If you are a carpenter or good with tools, please consider volunteering your time and skills for this project. The parish will pay for supplies. To learn more, please contact Father Jim at jwehner@diopitt.org. Thank you!

Annual Parish Appeal

Thank you to all who have generously responded to the 2026 Parish Appeal, which funds diocesan-wide ministries of service, formation, and pastoral care, including support for our seminarians, retired priests, and administrative services that parishes could not afford on their own. If you have not yet made a gift or pledge, please give it your prayerful consideration. May God bless you.

First Holy Communions

Please pray for our young people as they prepare to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. First Holy Communions begin Saturday, April 25 at noon at Saint Gregory Church. First Holy Communion Masses will follow on Saturday, May 2, noon at Holy Redeemer Church; Saturday, May 9, noon at Saint Ferdinand; and Saturday, May 16, noon at Saint Ferdinand.

Catholic Social Teaching — A Primer for Our Parish —

(This is Part One of a Seven-Part Series occurring in our Parish. We hope you enjoy it and are informed by it! Information contained within this document is from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) website.)

What is Catholic Social Teaching?

Ever since Jesus said in the Gospels, “I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these, my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!” (Matthew 25:40) and in St. John’s First Letter, verse 20, “Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen!” – our Church has taken seriously that it is our duty and our responsibility as practicing Catholics to help others in need.

Catholic Social Teaching has provided a vision for a just society based on these scripture principles since 1891. When the Industrial Revolution led workers and their families in horrific working and living conditions, Pope Leo XIII wrote the encyclical, Rerum Novarum, which is considered a foundation of modern Catholic Social Teaching. Since then, the teachings have continuously evolved taking into account new social challenges and concerns, while maintaining core principles like human dignity and the common good. They have been reinforced by the issuing of new papal documents that address contemporary issues like worker rights, poverty, environmentalism, and global justice.

The teachings propose a world in which the dignity of all people is recognized, and those who are vulnerable are cared for. They consist of an interrelated body of Catholic social thought and principles which can be used to reflect on and guide how we relate to one another in our local and global communities. We live in a world rife with conflict. There is much anxiety. Catholic Social Teaching can help us navigate these turbulent times and find ways to recognize Christ in each other, all of us.

Many Catholics are unfamiliar with this rich body of teachings. The other pages in this series will present one or two of the core principles of the teachings. They will be presented in this order:

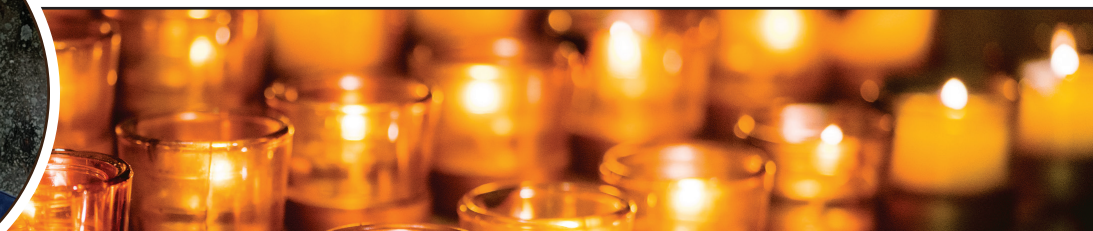

- Life and Dignity of the Human Person
- Call to Family, Community, and Participation
- Option for the Poor and Vulnerable
- Rights and Responsibilities, along with the Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers
- Solidarity and the Common Good
- Care for God’s Creation

Please plan to read the articles each week, refer to the Bible references listed within them, reflect upon them, and seek on your own to learn more about these vital teachings of the Church and how you might apply them in your daily life as one who seeks to follow Jesus, as well as how Divine Grace Parish might apply them.

If you would like to learn more on your own about Catholic Social Teaching, we suggest you start at the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops’ website at: www.usccb.org/offices/justice-and-peace/catholic-social-teaching

PRAYER FOR OUR YOUTH

Please pray for our young people who went on their annual LifeTeen
Spring Retreat this weekend.
May the Lord bless and protect them.

May they always be aware of their baptismal commitment and their place in this community of faith.

May their parents and the adults in their lives be worthy examples of Christian life. Amen

What's in a Name?

Thanks to all teens who submitted suggestions to name the field next to the Annex at Saint Ferdinand where their outdoor events are held. Three to five finalists will be chosen by young adults and put to a vote on Instagram. Stay tuned for details!

Faith on Fire Talk & Tailgate

Join other young adults (21–39) for an evening of conversation and inspiration as Sister Rita Clare Yoches, TOR, shares her remarkable journey from professional footballer and “party girl” to a spouse of Christ. Presented on Thursday, April 16 from 6:30 pm to 9:00 pm at Saints John & Paul (Saint Luke the Evangelist Parish), this Talk & Tailgate event offers the perfect blend of fellowship, faith, and renewal.

Live the Liturgy – Inspiration for the Week

How does Christ prove Himself to Thomas? Not by His face or His words, but by His wounds. So, when we look for God to show Himself in relief or in triumph, we must remember the wounds of Christ. This is where we find our salvation.

HE IS RISEN!

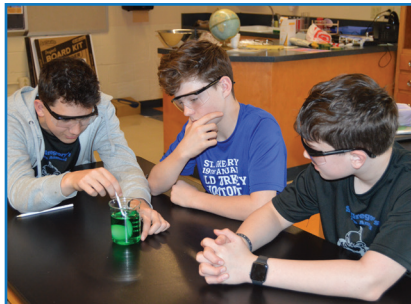

Some of our youngest students like Gianna learned about the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Preschoolers created Resurrection Gardens that displayed three crosses and the tomb with the stone rolled away. Students also made Resurrection Eggs, marking stations on Jesus' journey to the Cross. Happy Easter to all.

FUTURE WRITER?

Seventh grader Marcus received a Certificate of Merit for his creative writing. It will be published in a Young Writers Anthology. Congratulations, Marcus!

SCIENCE IS EGG-CELLENT!

Saint Gregory's middle school science class took the familiar Easter activity of dyeing eggs and brought it into the classroom. Students learned about the chemical process in which an acid (vinegar) reacts to the calcium carbonate shell. Photo from left: Patrick, Gabe & Jacob.

SPRING PEP RALLY

Before heading into Easter break, our athletes in track & field, boys volleyball and Little Spikers were celebrated. One quarter of our student body participates in track & field events and they've been competing in all kinds of weather. Our boys Varsity volleyball hoped to repeat the achievements of last year's team that made it to the Final Four in the Diocesan Championship. Go Wolves!

...gushing forth from the bosom of the Father,
...greatest attribute of God,
...incomprehensible mystery,
...fount gushing forth from the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity,
...unfathomable by any intellect
human or angelic,
...from which wells forth all life and happiness,
...better than the heavens,
...source of miracles and wonders,
...encompassing the whole universe,
...descending to earth in the Person of the Incarnate Word,
...which flowed out from the open wound of the Heart of Jesus,
...enclosed in the Heart of Jesus for us and especially for sinners, ...unfathomed in the institution of the Sacred Heart,
...in the founding of the Holy Church,
...in the sacrament of Holy Baptism,
...in our justification through Jesus
Christ,

...accompanying us through our whole life,
...embracing us especially at the hour of death,
...endowing us with immortal life,
...accompanying us every moment
of our life,
...shielding us from the fire of hell,
...in the conversion of hardened sinners,
...astonishment for angels,
incomprehensible to saints,
...unfathomed in all the mysteries of God,
...lifting us out of every misery,
...source of our happiness and joy,
...in calling us forth from nothingness to existence,
...embracing all the works of His hands,
...crown of all God's handy work,
...in which we are all immersed,
...sweet relief for anguished hearts,
...only hope of despairing souls,
...repose of hearts, peace amidst fear,
...delight and ecstasy of holy souls,
...inspiring hope against all hope
