DIVINE GRACE PARISH FINANCIAL REPORT

Sunday Collection total for

July 18-19, 2026 = $35,200

There was no Second Collection.

This weekend's Second Collection is for Parish Appeal.

Thank you for your generosity.

As we get ready for our 2026 Parish Family Festival, I am deeply grateful.

God has blessed us with hard-working parishioners who plan nearly year-round to stage this big event. We're also fortunate to have the support of our neighbors who attend the festival, and a growing group of sponsors.

The festival is a fundraiser which supports and sustains our many ministries and organizations. It's also an opportunity to celebrate, meet new people, enjoy fun in a safe place, and appreciate our blessings. I hope everyone has a good experience. Please invite your family and friends to join us!

Father Jim Wehner

Welcome to the Divine Grace Parish Family Festival! We are happy and humbled to serve in this role that brings together friendship, community, faith, and joyful service through our parish.

Whether you are a parishioner, neighbor, or a first-time visitor, you are an important part of our celebration. Our festival is rooted in the spirit of hospitality – an open invitation to experience fellowship, laughter, and the grace of shared moments.

A big THANK YOU to every volunteer who has dedicated his or her time, talent, and energy to making this festival a success again this year. Your commitment is critical, and your smiles, laughter, determination, and can-do attitude are most appreciated. You are the living embodiment of Christ's call to service and to love one another.

A special note of thanks must go to our festival committee and committee chairs who have worked tirelessly to organize, ensuring that every detail of the festival is addressed. Your leadership inspires us all.

Again, welcome! Enjoy the festival.

Jamie and Judy Shearer
