MISSION STATEMENT OF THE PARISH OF ST. ANTHONY

We are a Catholic community of faith in the Jesuit tradition gathered around Jesus Christ and centered in the Eucharist. In a diverse and changing world we struggle to grow in our relationship with God and with one another. Through our worship, our ministries and our promotion of peace and justice, we walk with Jesus of the Gospel who reveals God's love for all.

MISA EN ESPAÑOL EN LA CAPILLA

-Domingo a las 12:30 pm

XV DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

10 DE JULIO DE 2022

LAS LECTURAS DE LA MISA DE HOY

Por ser te fiel, yo contemplare tu rostro, Señor, y al despertar, espero saciarme de gloria.

Primera lectura - Deuteronomio 30, 10-14:

“Escucha la voz del Señor, tu Dios, que te manda guardar sus mandamientos”.

Salmo 68: “Busquen al Señor, y vivirán sus corazones”.

Segunda Lectura - Colosenses 1, 15-20:

“Cristo es la imagen de Dios invisible, el primogénito de toda la creación”.

Lectura del Santo Evangelio San Lucas 10, 25-37:

“Amaras al Señor tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con todas tus fuerzas y con todo tu ser y a tu prójimo como a ti mismo”.

La intención de la misa del día de hoy es por el alma de PABLO MADERA

Para intenciones de la misa comunicarse con la Hna. Margarita Reyes telf. 646-399-3847

Papa Francisco pide a jóvenes usar responsablemente su tiempo de vacaciones porque esto les permitirá prepararse para “tareas más exigentes” en el futuro.

“Los animo a que utilicen bien y con responsabilidad el tiempo que tienen a su disposición: así crecen y se preparan para tareas más exigentes”.

Además de descansar sabe que algunos jóvenes usan este tiempo “para ayudar como voluntarios en iniciativas solidarias.

Otros se dedican a pequeños trabajos para echar una mano a sus familias o para apoyar sus estudios, y otros reservan días de silencio y oración para estar con Dios y recibir luz en su camino”.

Sean “mensajeros de esperanza y renacimiento para el futuro”.

About St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Feast day: July 14

Kateri Tekakwitha is called the Lily of the Mohawks. Her name Tekakwitha means "putting things in order." She put her life in order in a short time.

Kateri was a Mohawk Indian born in what is now Auriesville, New York, ten years after Isaac Jogues and his companions were martyred there. Her mother was a Christian Algonquin Indian, and her father was a pagan Mohawk chief. Her parents and a brother died of smallpox when she was only four. Kateri recovered from the disease, but it left her eyes weak and her face scarred.

Anastasia, a friend of Kateri's mother, took care of her and told her stories about the Christian God. When Anastasia left for Canada to join other Christians there, Kateri's uncle, a Mohawk chief, took Kateri as his daughter.

When Kateri's uncle and aunts wanted her to marry, she refused. She felt that the Great Spirit was the only one she could love. This angered her uncle.

Kateri learned more about God from a missionary and asked to be baptized. She was baptized on Easter Sunday. It was hard for Kateri to live as a Christian. Her people expected her to work in the fields on Sunday, the Lord's Day. Sometimes they didn't feed her. Children made fun of her and threw stones at her. Kateri endured this for two years. Finally a priest advised Kateri to go to Canada where she would be with other Christians. One day when her uncle was not home, she left for Canada with a Christian named Hot Ashes. When Kateri's uncle found out she was missing, he followed her but did not catch her.

Kateri brought with her a note from the missionary priest to a Canadian priest that said, "I send you a treasure, Katherine Tekakwitha. Guard her well." Kateri lived an outstanding Christian life. She went to Mass daily, made frequent visits to the Blessed Sacrament, and prayed the rosary often. She cared for the sick and the old and taught the children. She did much penance.

Kateri suffered from bad headaches. She was not strong and could eat very little. When she died at the age of twenty-four, the scars on her face disappeared and she was beautiful. Kateri's last words were, "Jesus, I love you."

20 Catholic Ministries Appeal 22 DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE

St. Anthony Parish Goal: $80,000

"Only by loving, serving others, can people come to know God."

--Pope Francis

Pope Francis reminds us that, "the strength of the family lies in its capacity to love and to teach how to love." The family is where faith, hope and love are nurtured and fostered.

For many people, especially for the poor, who may be unemployed or under-employed, the struggle to support their families is a daily battle. Please consider supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal to make possible the many programs and services that assist families and individuals who are struggling in our communities.

Making a pledge is easy. Just ask the 356 families who have already made their 2022 pledge!
We thank them for their generosity!

To make a pledge: complete a pledge card that you find in the pews, use pledge envelope you received in the mail from the Catholic Ministries Appeal or clip and use the coupon on the following page.

Return the pledge form with your check (if you are including a payment) in the collection basket or at the Parish Center. You can also donate through Text-to-Give. Make checks payable to Catholic Ministries Appeal. You can also mail your pledge to: Catholic Ministries Appeal, Diocese of RVC, PO Box 4000, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-9801.

NOTE: You do not have to include a payment when you make your pledge. The CMA office will send you reminders.

100% of every dollar raised by the Catholic Ministries is restricted for the funding of Diocesan ministries and to aid the parishes of the Diocese.

St. Anthony's Religious Education Program

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Religious Education classes have come to an end for the 2021-2022 school year. We extend a note of deep thanks to our many catechists for their dedication and efforts in sharing the knowledge and gift of our faith with the children of our parish.

Catechists are needed for all grade levels for classes beginning in the Fall. Class sizes are kept small and are held on alternating weeks from September-May. Teaching experience is not necessary but only a desire to share our Catholic faith with children. All materials, supplies and resources are supplied.

Please consider being a volunteer teacher or co-teacher (you can choose to partner with a friend, another parent or family member and divide the number of classes you each teach). For further information please contact the Religious Education office 516-764-0048 Ext 2520

Registration for Religious Education classes for the 2022-2023 school year is now open for all returning families and for new families.

2022-2023 CLASS SCHEDULES

- ⇒ Classes for Grades 1-6 are offered on Mondays-Thursdays at 3:45 p.m. or 5:00 p.m.
- ⇒ Classes for Grades 7-8 (Confirmation preparation) classes are offered on Tuesday or Thursday evenings.

Please visit our parish website to download an information packet and to register online. <https://sacli.org/religious-education>.

Please call the Religious Education Office for more information or to register in person.

ISOLATION to CONNECTION

Short term support and connection to ongoing services

Through this new UJA-Federation New York funded program for isolated seniors, a caring Friedberg JCC social worker will establish rapport, assess needs, make facilitated referrals, and follow up to confirm service provision, providing a warm connection to ongoing services tailored to each senior's needs.

We can link seniors to an array of community-based services including:

- Home delivered meals
- Paratransit transportation (in most areas)
- Vaccine appointments
- Ongoing case management programs
- Home-based medical services
- Telephone or in-person counseling
- Home care
- Virtual programming
- Nassau County Police Department Senior Engagement Program

Accessing services is less overwhelming when there is a caring professional providing support at each step of the way while the connection to ongoing services is made.
