Dear Friends and Parishioners,

In writing this small letter of thanks to you, many things come to mind, because there were many good experiences that I had during these three years in this good parish, St Andrew. I say it because I value all your teaching, affection and love.

My time in the parish has ended, and in it many experiences of God I have had, and many experiences of people who are looking for God. Of this there is something that is very clear and of which I am very grateful. Nothing of what happens, happens without it being the will of God. Dear friends, I feel truly honored to have been in this wonderful parish. I feel very grateful to God for giving me the opportunity to have participated with all of you.

I discovered that you really know how to deal very well with all those who are your spiritual leaders. I have met many people who are really looking for God, and I have found many friends who know how to provide that support and closeness to a good friend. The experience of love through friendship that I have found in this good community has led me to value more love as a necessary value to increase the fullness of my existence each day.

Thank you very much for everything. As Cicero says: "There is no duty more necessary than giving thanks." Truthfully, I would like to mention all those people who were very, very close in everything that took place. I could mention them, but I am afraid I would miss any person who had a physical, material, or spiritual contribution, which were their prayers.

Once I heard somebody saying: "Thank God for what you have and you will end up having more. If you only concentrate on what you lack, you will NEVER have enough for you. In spite of everything, trust, trust always in Him, and it will always be good for you." All the good things and experiences that I've had have been because God has wanted them that way. My parishioners of Saint Andrew, you have been and are the good part of what God has given me.

God is wonderful, comes when we least expect it and surprises us with his blessings. It never arrives early or late, it arrives just when we truly need it.

MANY, MANY THANKS!

May God bless you all always, and you are always in my prayers.
With very sincere love,

Fr Jesus Oliveros

Thank You

RCIA

Do you or someone you know desire to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation?

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a faith formation process for adult seekers (18 years or older) both unbaptized and baptized Christians and baptized Catholics, who seek to complete their initiation sacraments (Holy Communion and Confirmation).

If you, or someone you know, has the desire to learn more about our Catholic faith and receive these sacraments, know that Jesus is personally inviting you to become closer to Him.

For more information, contact Barb at the Adult Faith Formation Office:

(815) 886-4165, ext. 308 or adultff@andrewcc.org.

*Is there a family you know that needs assistance? Please have them call or email:
Help Line: 815-886-4165 or email stvincentdepaul@andrewcc.org*

In today's Gospel, Jesus shows His disappointment when teaching in the synagogue. He was questioned about his wisdom and working of powerful acts. He is amazed that His neighbors have such little faith in Him because they know Him. We as followers of Christ should reflect on our faith and our Lord's presence in our lives. Do we call upon His help only when in need? As we a disappointment to Him?

Support of our conference helps us in our work assisting our neighbors who are in temporary need. We are grateful for your generosity.

Dear Fr. Maciej,

When a mother hears her baby's heartbeat for the first time during a Waterleaf ultrasound, we often witness despair turn into hope. Thank you for being a cherished friend of Waterleaf. Your generosity provides a warm and safe haven where women can contemplate a life-affirming decision.

Daisy's story is just one of many examples of the impact of your support. The morning Daisy came to Waterleaf, she and her husband stated they both did not want children. When asked about how she was feeling about potentially being pregnant, Daisy teared up and continued to profess her desire to have an abortion...until she heard the heartbeat. Although she laughed at the image of her baby moving on the screen, she was still conflicted between having the baby or giving in to her husband's ultimatum.

Daisy's road has not been easy, but thanks to supporters like you, we walked this journey with her as she struggled to follow her heart and choose life despite the consequences to her marriage.

Recently Daisy brought her son into Waterleaf to visit. Please take a few minutes to see Daisy and Jeffery's video testimony on our website at www.onechoiceonelifelife.org.

Because of your generous gift of $9,550.00, we can continue to help Daisy and others like her find the support and resources they need to give their babies a chance at life and to avoid the regret that so often devastates those who make a different choice.

Thank you for reassuring us that you will always support saving a beating heart.

In faith,

Megan Barnhart
Manager of Donor Relations

Thank you

Wishing you a blessed summer!

My presence will go with you,

Youth Ministry News!

The goal of YOUTH MINISTRY is to gather teens in a fun, supportive environment to explore Truth and to develop friendships as they explore their own relationship with Jesus. We also look for ways to serve others in the name of Christ.

Separate ministries are organized for High School teens (9th-12th Grades) and Middle School teens (6th-8th Grades) to allow for programming which meets the needs of each age group. Sometimes both groups gather together to allow for the older teens to minister to the younger ones.

We are looking at several options as to how we can implement YOUTH MINISTRY programming beginning this August. WE HAVE A TENTATIVE DATE OF AUGUST 14 from 4-7PM for a fun Youth Ministry night in the works, mark your calendar. If you have teens interested in Youth Ministry, please complete the online enrollment link below so that we know of your interest and can keep you informed.
