ARISH TRANSFORMATION

Transformation Even in the Midst of a Pandemic

Here we are, in our 6th week of the stay-at-home order. I remember going into a very quiet Church the first Sunday (March 22) when we were not allowed to gather in large groups. It was so quiet and surreal in the Church. Little did we realize then that Holy Week Liturgies and Easter Mass would be celebrated virtually. Little did we know that the school year would end without our students coming back to their school buildings for classes. At that point in my life, I had no idea what Zoom was. I had to locate my Facebook username and password to get back into that site, since I had not been using it all that often. Now, I not only have to remember where I laid my phone; I have to remember where I put my mask (one of a few that I rotate into the wash!) if I had to take that off.

Yes, so many things have changed in the last few weeks. But one thing that has not changed is our Christian HOPE. Our parish has had to do some quick adaptations in order to reach out through the virtual world. Things were developing so quickly! In one weekend we had to bring ourselves up to speed with the various digital platforms. Livestreaming a Mass went, overnight, from being a dream to be a necessary reality. We have a daily presence on YouTube, Facebook and Instagram. I have also learned how to incorporate links into what I hope will be a regular newsletter through Constant Contact. Yes, so many changes!

But as we all know, the most important change, or transformation, has to do with our personal journey. How is the Holy Spirit nudging us to use our family time, and our private time, to grow as disciples of the Lord Jesus? A constant refrain on television ads is "We will get through this together." Yes, we will, and we Christians have an added advantage of believing that the Holy Spirit is the one who is moving us to become better members of the human family and the Christian family, even though this pandemic is not a plan that we would have devised for our own lives. We continue to huddle within the safety of our own shelters, as did the disciples that first Easter morning. We continue to fear what is out there, that could do such harm to any of us or our loved ones, this unseen viral enemy. We could give in to those dark forces, especially as we are concerned about our livelihoods and the fallout of having to shelter in place for much longer.

Are we like the disciples of today's Gospel (Luke 24:13-35) whose journey on the road to Emmaus is full of confusion? Or, are we allowing the Lord Jesus to meet us on this present journey, right where we are, and help us realize that we must walk only in the direction that gives us life – our relationship with the One who died, and rose, for our salvation?

We pray that the Church of our homes, the "Domestic Church," is what God wants it to be for us at this time in history – a place where we come to know the Lord Jesus even better, and where we are transformed into more vibrant Catholic disciples, so that when we make the great return into the world, we will be transformed into stronger and more fervent witnesses for our Savior. And, in your Domestic Church, don't forget to tune in to our livestream Masses this weekend, to gather with the rest of your parish family in the virtual world!

REMINDER: If you are not receiving the Constant Contact email message, please check your spam or junk email folder to see if it landed there. If you are not on the Constant Contact list, please let us know by emailing officemanager@stjosephmech.org. God bless! Fr. Rozman

In our age, media and news reporting are changing quickly.
At The Catholic Witness, we want to report the news in ways that reach Catholics instantly.

Our Diocesan newspaper has brought the truth of Jesus to all those who read it. It has challenged and consoled, informed and formed, united and helped its readership.

We will continue to share in the Church's mission to tell the Good News of Jesus Christ in the context of today's world.

The last issue of the Catholic Witness to be printed is May 3, 2020. To receive your free digital copy please email your name and email address

YouTube website and subscribe. You may also connect through our website www.stjosephmech.org and click on the YouTube icon in the top right corner. We will be posting ALL Masses (both recorded and live-streamed) to this channel, as well as other devotions and spiritual offerings. This is a great way to help keep us connected to all the wonderful things happening in our Parish!

New Communication Method from Father Rozman

On April 3, 2020, Father Rozman started an email newsletter for our parish family! In a way to stay connected during our stay at home quarantine, Father will be sending timely updates about our parish. These emails are currently going to our parishioners whose email address we have. If you did not receive these emails and would like to be included in our distribution list, please contact the parish office, either by phone at 717-766-9433 or email at officemanager@stjosephmech.org with your current email address and we will add your information to our database. Be sure to check your inbox Friday afternoons!

Prayer from Pope Francis:

O Mary,
you always shine on our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you,
Health of the Sick,
who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain,
keeping your faith firm.
You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide
so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting
after this time of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself
our sufferings
and carried our sorrows
to lead us, through the cross,
to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.
Under your protection, we seek refuge,
Holy Mother of God.
Do not disdain the entreaties of we,
who are in trial,
but deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

SJS congratulates 8th grader, Bryce Sibio, on his nomination for the Broadcom MASTERS program. This national science competition is considered the most prestigious middle school opportunity in the United States. Only 6000 students nation-wide are invited to register. Bryce was nominated for the Broadcom MASTERS by the Capital Area Science & Engineering Fair (CASEF). We are very proud of Bryce and wish him good luck as he moves forward!

Congratulations to Trinity High School's 2020 valedictorian, Connor Coyle, and salutatorian, Giana Abbas! Connor and Giana are alumni of Saint Joseph School. The students and staff of SJS are very proud of Connor and Giana on their tremendous accomplishments!

Keep up with the happenings of SJS by visiting our Facebook page

Abiding Together Women's group via ZOOM!

We are happy to announce that we're resuming our women's group on Thursday evenings using Zoom video conferencing. Please email Mary Vukelich at adultformation@stjosephmech.org if you'd like to participate. You'll see how your faith blossoms when you've got amazing, insightful, supportive, and fun women as companions on the journey! Each week we listen to an episode of the Abiding Together podcast, then discuss how the ideas presented help us draw closer to Christ. We learn, we laugh, we pray — and we end each session refreshed and renewed in Him.

Want a preview? Listen to the podcast for free using your favorite podcast app (iTunes, Stitcher, Spotify, etc.) or by visiting www.abidingtogetherpodcast.com.
