PARISH TRANSFORMATION

THERE ARE DIFFERENT MINISTRIES, BUT THE SAME SPIRIT (1 Corinthians 12:5)

Did you know that our parish has over 40 ministries? This includes Liturgical ministries such as Altar Servers and Liturgical Musicians, Evangelization ministries like the Legion of Mary and Hospitality, Education ministries like REP and Saint Joseph School, Pastoral Ministries like Scouting and Christian Contemplative Meditation, Stewardship ministries like the Finance Council and the Property Maintenance Committee, Ecumenism ministries like Ministerium Meetings and Interfaith Prayer Walks, and Social Concern ministries like Home Missions Outreach and Matthew 25: Helping Hands.

The number and variety of ways our parishioners serve is truly remarkable!

A few years ago when we embarked on our Parish Transformation journey, we realized that we needed to support and uplift our ministry leaders. If we as a parish are going to fulfill our mission of fostering the presence of Christ and growing disciples, it will be in large part because our ministry leaders and parish volunteers make it happen. And what a blessing that these leaders welcome this responsibility! When asked, "Why are you part of the ministry you lead?", these are some of the answers they provided: Love for the Lord and His people; Serve God; Part of community; Get others involved; Keep faith going – youth; Example for children. Clearly, these leaders feel a personal responsibility for the people of our parish and, ultimately, for growing disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ and building up the Kingdom of God.

Given the important role our ministry leaders play, it is crucial that they feel affirmed, supported, listened to, equipped and encouraged. So back in 2017, we began hosting biannual meetings for just that purpose. We have borrowed a lofty term from the Divine Renovation book by Fr. James Mallon, and call these meetings "Ministry Leadership Summits." Prior to the pandemic, we kicked-off each meeting with a hearty breakfast (shout out to the Messinger family!!) as a way of showing appreciation to our ministry leaders. We also used meal time to catch up with old friends and make new ones. Currently we meet and greet each other via Zoom, and we have discovered that warmth and laughter can definitely be transmitted via computer! We pray together, which is an essential and uplifting part of what makes us so much more than a gathering of individuals... it makes us a Church family! The primary meeting focus is dedicated to identifying and exploring topics that help our ministries thrive. We've talked about how to keep our parish informed about what our ministries do, and shared ideas on how to recruit new members. We've discussed our parish's mission statement and worked to ensure each individual ministry is supporting and advancing that mission in their own unique way. Our ministry summits provide our ministry leaders the opportunity to talk to each other in small groups, where they collaborate, share ideas, foster fellowship, and encourage each other. If you're a member of a ministry here at Saint Joseph, you can expect your leader to share the ideas we discuss at these summits.

We ask our entire parish to pray for our amazing ministry leaders and volunteers who dedicate so much of their time and talent in service to our parish and to our Lord. We're blessed to have them!

Our next Ministry Leadership Summit is April 24th, 2021, 9:00 AM to 10:30AM via Zoom. All ministry leaders are encouraged to attend or send a representative. If you have not received an invitation, please contact Mary Vukelich at: adultformation@stjosephmech.org.

Third Sunday of Easter

Entrance Chant • THE DAY OF RESURRECTION

The day of resurrection! Earth, spread the news abroad; The Paschal feast of gladness, the Paschal feast of God. From death to life eternal, from earth to heaven's height. Our Savior Christ has brought us, the glorious Lord of Light. Our hearts be free from evil that we may see aright. The Savior resurrected in his eternal light, and hear his message plainly, delivered calm and clear: "Rejoice with me in triumph, be glad and do not fear."

† INTRODUCTORY RITES

Gloria

Gloria! Gloria! Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people, to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Gloria! Gloria! Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people, to people of good will. Lord, Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. Gloria! Gloria! Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people, to people of good will. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Gloria! Gloria! Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people, to people of good will. Amen.

† THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading • Acts of the Apostles 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people: "The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm • Psalm 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

R/. Lord, let your face shine on us.

Second Reading • 1 John 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation • Festival Alleluia

Christ is living! He is risen! Death, where is your sting?

R/. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Gospel • Luke 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them. He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, (at the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Universal Prayer • Lord, Receive Our Prayer

† THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Hymn • IN CHRIST ALONE

In Christ alone my hope is found, he is my light, my strength, my song; this cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when strivings cease. My comforter, my all in all, here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe! This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones he came to save. Till on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied. For every sin on him was laid; here in the death of Christ I live.

† COMMUNION RITE

Communion Hymn • BEHOLD THE LAMB

Those who were in the dark are thankful for the sunlight; we who live, we who die are grateful for his gift, thankful for his love. Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live; and all, all who dwell in God shall come to know his glory.

Peaceful now, those whose hearts are blessed with understanding of the wheat, of the wine united with his word and the love we share. Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live; and all, all who dwell in God shall come to know his glory.

Spiritual Communion Prayer: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

† CONCLUDING RITE

Prayer to Saint Michael: Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Closing Hymn • THREE DAYS

Three days our world was broken; the Lord of life lay dead. "Take up your cross," he told us who followed where he led. Would we now hang in torment with thieves on ev'ry side, our Passover shattered, our hope crucified? Three days we hid in silence, in bitter fear and grief. Three days we clung together where he had washed our feet.

Three days and on the third day, the women came at dawn. His tomb, they said, was empty, his broken body gone. Who could believe their story? The dead do not arise, yet he walks among us, and with our own eyes we've seen him at this table, we've shared his bread and wine. Hearts burning bright within us, we've seen his glory shine.

Do you or someone you know have a great business in town that should be on the bulletin?
If so, please contact Lisa Sparkman at 717-507-3766 to reserve space on the bulletin!
Constant weekly presence reminds people to use your business - Shows you like to give back to the community
Change your ad copy to promote specials or seasonal services - You are helping the church with their communication efforts
