"Mass Notes"

PARISH TRANSFORMATION

Once a month, right before Mass begins, our clergy shares a small "note" about an aspect of the Mass in order to help everyone better understand, appreciate, and engage in the liturgy. Below are a couple of examples of what's been shared...

FASTING BEFORE MASS

Most of us know that we're asked to refrain from eating and drinking anything other than water an hour before Mass. The only exception is for the sick and the elderly.

But why do we fast? Why do we do this before Mass? or during Lent? or ever?

Perhaps there is another question that is worth asking: What are we hungry for; what do we feel that deep need for?

When we think about our needs, we tend to focus on the physical and the material, don't we?

And God cares about our physical needs. But He also wants us to think bigger. He wants us to think about eternity. About faith, hope and love, the things that really last.

He knows us so well, that He knows that we need help with that. So He gives us practices like fasting to help us to get out of our own way. Fasting helps us refrain from acting impulsively, almost mindlessly, to get what WE think we need, and pay attention instead to what God is offering.

Fasting before Mass helps us pay attention to the fact that He is about to offer us something so much greater than any earthly food; He is offering us His very self. Our body and soul are about to be united with His body, blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist. Fasting helps us pause and consider the magnitude of that and recognize our deep need. It helps us hunger for Him: the Bread of Life.

ENTRANCE PROCESSION

Every Mass begins with a procession from the Narthex to the Sanctuary. That walk is a very intentional journey. It reminds each of us of our journey through this life to heaven. And we're led in this procession by the cross, carried by the altar server, reminding us that Jesus leads us to salvation.

Isn't that a beautiful way to begin Mass? A physical transition from the everyday to the eternal.

And we're not making that transition -- that journey -- alone! One of the great blessings of coming to Mass is the joy of journeying together with our parish family.

Do you find these "Mass notes" helpful? Is there something that happens in the Mass that you'd like to understand better? Let us know! Contact Mary at communications@stjosephmech.org or 717.766.9433.

SJS celebrated "Read Across America Week" with a number of activities. One of the activities involved Student Service Council members visiting the lower grades to be "mystery readers".

Members of the after-school Science Explorers Club recently performed a variety of experiments involving bubbles.
