Students in grades 5-8 were recently trained on the Safe2Say Something (S2SS) youth violence prevention program run by the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General. From the Safe2Say Something website: "The program teaches youth and adults how to recognize warning signs and signals, especially within social media, from individuals who may be a threat to themselves or others and to "say something" BEFORE it is too late. With Safe2Say Something, it's easy and confidential to report safety concerns to help prevent violence and tragedies."

Local children's author, Savannah Lehman, visited students in Preschool 4 through grade 2 on a recent morning to read her book, Cheetah Fast, and to talk about being an author.
