Personal Reflection: Lucero, on Strength and Comfort

Recently parishioner Lucero Kullick shared her experience of receiving the Eucharist: "To me, it about strength and comfort. I feel the love, I feel the strength, I feel the support. I feel that He is with me."

But Lucero knows that it is not only about feelings. It is also about "knowing who we are receiving." We need to be aware that He is truly present, and allow that reality to transform us.

The time right after Lucero receives Holy Communion at Mass is precious to her. "That's my special moment with Him. I talk to Him from the depths of my heart." She notes how she can share everything, "the best of me, the hardest things, the confusion."

As she kneels down, she is overwhelmed by the sense that she is completely in the Lord's hands. "I'm totally yours," she prays.
