THEME: LISTEN

This Memorial Day weekend we remember all those who gave their lives in wars and other hostilities. These are our sons and daughters, our brothers and sisters, our fathers and mothers whose lives were tragically cut short in violent conflict. Today we also approach the end of the Easter season. We listen to Jesus pray for his disciples. We hear his disciples' devotion to prayer after Jesus ascended to the Father. May our prayers connect us with those who are no longer with us.

Acts 1:12-14

They devoted themselves to prayer in the upper room.

1 Peter 4:13-16

Rejoice that we share in the sufferings of Christ.

John 17:1-11a

Father, glorify your Son.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAWID

Memorial Day Remembrance

To remember our fallen comrades is a necessary part of any Memorial Day celebration. We honor their lives and the lives of all other civil protectors as we gather in grateful remembrance of this precious gift of life they so bravely offered to ensure our freedom.

*Gracious God,
have mercy on your people,
and open our hearts to peace and love.
Bless all who have died protecting the rights of others,
and grant that all nations
continue to work for peace and justice for all.
Bless us in your service, and help us to work together to give you glory and to bring about your kingdom of love.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Being a real people of faith comes with a price. Have you ever been seen as unpopular, out of sync or peculiar because of your faith? St. Peter tells us, "If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you." If being a Christian comes easy for us, then we ought to rethink how we approach our faith. Developing habits of prayer, living in accord with the Gospel, setting time aside each week for the practice of our faith, seeing our relationship with Christ as the center and focus of our families all come with sacrifice. We are going to look differently than other folks and we ought to. We are going to find ourselves doing less of the things we are "supposed to do" and more of the things we know we "ought to do or want to do." This often means resisting secular tides and putting our boats into different waters. If this is what helps us know the one true God, then so be it. It also brings us to eternal life.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

We are in this together. Every day at Catholic Charities, we feed the hungry at our food pantries. We counsel teens and their families through our evidence-based MST program. We provide support, guidance and hope through our mental health and substance abuse services. We do this and so much more thanks to you. None of this is possible without the time and energy you devote to Catholic Charities and the Annual Appeal. Make a difference today with your gift at www.ccwny.org/donation.

THINK ABOUT IT

To one who has faith, no explanation is necessary. To one without faith, no explanation is possible.

.....Thomas Aquinas, Philosopher and theologian

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

As we celebrate the feast of the Ascension we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples....and now through us.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can bring peace to those who are hungry.

EDUCATIONAL CORNER

FIFTEEN PROMISES OF MARY GRANTED TO THOSE WHO RECITE THE ROSARY

- Whoever shall recite the rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries, shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice; he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just he shall remain in the grace of God and become worthy of eternal life.
- Whoever shall have a true devotion for the rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
- Those who are faithful to recite the rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
- I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the rosary.
- The faithful children of the rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.
