May they feel the warmth of Christ in our Parish Community.

To our parishioners and visitors, our friends, neighbors, Catholics and non-Catholics: We're so glad you are here! If you have any questions about the Mass, church membership, or want to speak with a priest, please call one of the parish offices.

"Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit."
Is 42:1

Lord Jesus, help us to persevere in living out our Baptismal promises.

Please keep in prayer the beloved deceased of our Resurrection Parish family. Continue to pray for those souls who have no one else to pray for them.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

DAILY READINGS

Sunday: Sir 35:12-14, 16-18/Ps 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23 [7a]/
2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18/Lk 18:9-14

Monday: Eph 4:32—5:8/Ps 1:1-2, 3, 4 and 6/Lk 13:10-17

Tuesday: Eph 5:21-33/Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5/Lk 13:18-21

Wednesday: Eph 6:1-9/Ps 145:10-11, 12-13ab, 13cd-14/Lk 13:22-30

Thursday: Eph 6:10-20/Ps 144:1b, 2, 9-10/Lk 13:31-35

Saturday: Phil 1:18b-26/Ps 42:2, 3, 5cdef/Lk 14:1, 7-11

Next Sunday: Wis 11:22—12:2/Ps 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13, 14/
2 Thes 1:11—2:2/Lk 19:1-10

Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (Lk 18:14, today's gospel)

We have had enough Pharisees in our world, and we don't need anyone else to tell us how innocent they are of wrongdoing. It's time for all of us to stand at a distance and acknowledge our own complicity in evil. It's time to stop bragging and to beg God's forgiveness.

"The structures of our society are subtly racist, for these structures reflect the values which society upholds. They are geared to the success of the majority and the failure of the minority.

Members of both groups give unwitting approval by accepting things as they are. Perhaps no single individual is to blame. The sinfulness is often anonymous but nonetheless real. The sin is social in nature in that each of us, in varying degrees, is responsible. All of us in some measure are accomplices."

US Bishops, Brothers and Sisters to Us, 1979: 13

Special Collections

- Catholics throughout the world are asked to support the missions in a special way on World Missions Sunday. This year's collection is at all Masses this weekend, October 22 & 23. Please be as generous as possible in supporting the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,150 mission dioceses worldwide.
- In response to the urgent need for assistance in the aftermath of Hurricane Ian, the USCCB has called for each diocese to take up a special collection to support the Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund the weekend of October 29 & 30. Please make checks payable to Diocese of Pittsburgh, with "Hurricane Ian" in the memo field.

REFLECTION

Pastor's Letter

Mark, My Words:

What is the problem for Jesus in today's Gospel? In a nutshell: the Pharisee's blind self-righteousness. Instead of trusting himself to God's mercy, the Pharisee places his trust in his own perfection and uprightness.

Maybe we prefer things to be black or white: that Pharisees were always arrogant and tax collectors were all lovable scoundrels. But no. Jesus says it is all about their different attitudes toward God. One was self-assured that he could do no wrong; the other was so ashamed of his wrongdoing, he couldn't raise his head, but he hoped for and relied on God's mercy.

The truth is that we desperately need God, and that everything we have comes from God as a pure gift of love. Arrogance causes us to be ignorant of this truth. Instead of seeing the reality of the sinner we really are, we look down upon those who are not as correct, as polite, as smart, or as "good" as we think we are. Frankly, I wonder how God can stand us when we are being that way!

There is one way to cure our blindness, and that is to allow ourselves to become one in being with God and God's creation. To be aware of God in this way is called contemplation. Contemplation is both a way to pray and a way of life. The Trappist monk Thomas Merton said that his prayer was very simple: it was centered entirely on the presence of God, God's will, and God's love. True contemplation allows us to get rid of our false self and begin to experience ourselves as belonging to God at the deepest level—along with all the rest of the creation. It is a humbling and exhilarating reality, far removed from any false arrogance.

PARISH MISSION: Special thanks to the Parish Mission Team who helped to make our week of mission so prayerful for all of us. The team members, under the leadership of our Pastoral Associate, Mary Swindal are: Michelle Ferry, Judy Grunwald, Bennett Lo, Judy Shock, Peter Skeel, and Susan Speer.

THE DISCIPLE MAKER INDEX SURVEY

Pastoral Planning Process: What are your dreams for Resurrection Parish?

Our Town Hall Meetings for the Pastoral Plan include a listening session in the Synodal Format. We will have the opportunity, in small groups, to listen to each other's thoughts; How do we serve the Works of Mercy? What are our strengths and weaknesses as a parish? How could we do better moving forward? We are grateful that Maureen Crossen, retired Carlow Theology professor, will help to guide the listening component of the Town Hall meetings.

To help with planning, please register for a Town Hall session at the following link on the parish website www.resurrectionpgh.org/town-hall.

Walk-in participation is welcome as well. We are aware that not everyone can come to the Town Halls in person, and are working to reach and gather information from those unable to attend. Please contact the parish office if you would like us to reach out to you. Thank you all for your involvement in this important process!

- Thursday, November 3rd at St. Thomas More from 12:30 - 2:30PM in the Family Life Center
- Sunday, November 6th at St. John Capistran from 12:30-2:30PM in Capistran Hall
- Tuesday, November 8th at St. Thomas More from 7:00-9:00PM in the Family Life Center

The Pastoral Plan and The Works of Mercy

In April 2015, Pope Francis announced The Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy. His opening words of announcement were "Jesus Christ is the face of the Father's mercy... Mercy has become living and visible in Jesus of Nazareth." Pope Francis continued further on. "Jesus introduces us to these works of mercy in his preaching so that we can know whether or not we are living as his disciples. Let us rediscover these corporal works of mercy: to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, heal the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. And let us not forget the spiritual works of mercy: to counsel the doubtful, instruct the ignorant, admonish sinners, comfort the afflicted, forgive offences, bear patiently those who do us ill, and pray for the living and the dead. Let us not forget the words of Saint John of the Cross: 'as we prepare to leave this life, we will be judged on the basis of love'." Misericordiae Vultus, #1, 15

If you do this for the least ones, you do it for me. Mt 25:40

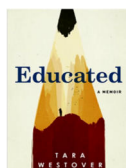

AROUND THE PARISH

Join us today, Sunday, October 23 for a Donut Social!

We will meet in Capistran Hall
following the 9:00am & 11:00am Sunday
Masses at St. John Capistran Church.

Lectors are invited to an Evening of Reflection on Thursday, October 27 from 7:00-9:00 p.m. in Capistran Hall at St. John Capistran Church. Fr. Jim Chepponis will facilitate these evenings along with our parish Pastoral Associate, Mary Swindal. The evenings will give lectors a chance to meet one another, reflect on their ministry, and discuss some practical issues. See you then!

The Women's Emmaus is hosting a monthly evening book club. The book for October is Educated by Tara Westover. Please come and join us for a night of book talk, laughter and snacks. We are meeting on Tuesday, October 25th, 2022 in the Utopia Room. Contact Heather Derda at (412) 716-0849 or hderda@gmail.com with any questions.

Liturgy of the Hours Morning Prayer

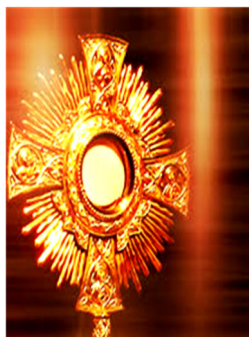

This beautiful liturgical prayer finds its source in the Eucharist and is truly both ancient and ever new. Please join us for Morning Prayer on Thursdays at 8:00 AM before the 8:30 AM Mass at SJC. Easy to follow booklets are provided.

The Lions of Fifth Avenue is a novel by Fiona Davis that is a masterfully executed story about two women living decades apart, mysterious family secrets, and the quest to stake a place in society and history. This novel is chosen for the Book Discussion Group meeting on November 14th which gathers in the Family Life Center at St. Thomas More Church. Meetings are from 10:00am until noon. All are welcome!

The 2023 Mass Intention book opened on October 5, 2022. Mass Intention forms are available at both parish offices or online at www.resurrectionpgh.org/mass-intentions. Requests cannot be taken over the phone. Please submit your Mass Intention request forms via mail, the collection basket, or in person.

Adoration and Spiritual Communion

Venerable Aloysius Schwartz, the founder of the World Villages for Children, writes this about the Eucharist:

The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life. It is the heart of our prayer life. Our prayer life should be focused on the Eucharist; it should turn on the Eucharist, on communion and adoration.

Communion and adoration are simply two aspects of the same prayer, two sides of the same coins, so to speak. At Mass we received Jesus, in communion in visible manner. We open our mouth, and the priest places Jesus' Bread on our tongue. And Jesus enters our heart in a visible manner and we become one with Him in a tangible manner.

Adoration is a form of spiritual communion. By adoration, we open the lips of our heart, and Jesus enters our heart in an invisible manner, in an intangible way. But the result is the same as in communion - we become one with the living Jesus.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him (Jn 6:56).

To schedule your own weekly time to remain with Jesus go to: <https://www.resurrectionpgh.org/adoration>

Openings: Fri 2AM, Sat 2AM and Sat 3PM

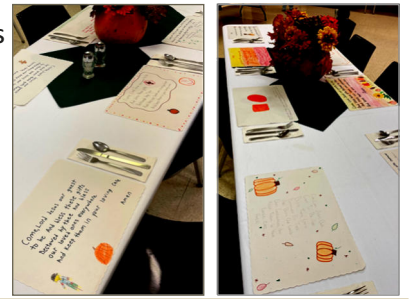

Or choose any hour 24/6

Visitors welcome 6AM to 10PM

AROUND THE PARISH

Special thanks to the artistic students in Mrs. Pattinato's religion classes at Ave Maria Academy for decorating the placemats used for our first Second Saturday Supper & Social on October 8th. The artwork and prayers added to the wonderful spirit of the evening. Our prayers and gratitude are with these students! Our next dinner is November 12th with guest chef, Lucia Facco and her famous Northern Italian style lasagna. Stay tuned for full menu and additional details!

Thank you to Fr. Bob Gielow for spending our Parish Mission Week with us. It truly was an opportunity for spiritual enrichment for the entire parish. We are grateful for your inspiring homilies and the time you spent getting to know the members of our faith community. You will be in our hearts and prayers as you continue your mission work throughout the country.

Thank you to all the cookie bakers and donors for the Social hours of the Mission last week. Your delicious donations were greatly enjoyed!

Mass of Remembrance for our dearly departed

Saturday, November 5, 2022 - St. Thomas More Church

Rosary for the Deceased - 10:45 am

Mass of Remembrance - 11:30 am Family Luncheon - 12:30 pm

Each year, the Church sets aside the month of November as a special time for us to remember our deceased family members and friends. All Souls Day, November 2nd, is dedicated to praying for the souls and honoring the lives of all who have entered eternal life during the past year.

This year, we will remember the faithful departed from Resurrection Parish with a Mass of Remembrance at St. Thomas More Church on Saturday, November 5th. During Mass, the names of our deceased parishioners will be read, as family members light candles in their memory. Prior to Mass the rosary will be said for the repose of their souls.

If you have experienced the loss of a loved one from November 2021 to the present, please plan to attend this special Mass and luncheon. An invitation for your family will be mailed to the person listed as "next of kin" in the parish records.

For those who cannot attend, the Mass will be livestreamed, and members of the Bereavement Ministry and Ladies of Charity will light a candle when your loved one's name is read. Please visit the parish website www.resurrectionpgh.org for a link to the Mass, or contact the parish office with any questions.

May their souls, and souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Pittsburgh Civic Orchestra

In Concert

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2022, 7:30 PM

St. Thomas More Church

Join the Pittsburgh Civic Orchestra, under the direction of their new conductor, Maestro Alejandro Pinzon, for an evening of great music. Our parish welcomes the PSO for their second concert and we could not be happier they are returning. A suggested donation of $10.00 at the door is requested and a portion of the proceeds will come back to our "Friends of Music" fund at Resurrection Parish for our own Music Ministry.

A very special thank you to all who helped make the celebration of Confirmation so special: Bishop Mark and our clergy team; our eighth grade faith formation catechists, Mr. Mark Gesk, Ms. Marlene Kish, Mrs. Meghan Heldrich, and Mrs. Amy Nowakowski from Ave Maria Academy; our Music Minister Mr. Daniel Kovacic; our cantors, choir, and instrumentalists; the altar servers and lectors, and everyone else who helped in any way to make the day such a special one for our newly confirmed and their families. Thank you and God bless you!

Children's Liturgy of the Word: Children's Liturgy of the Word is open to children ages 3 years through first grade and is held on most Sundays during the 11:30 Mass at St. Thomas More. For more information, or to assist in this ministry, please contact Susan Young at syoung@resurrectionpgh.org.

Teen Mentors Needed! Religious Education Classes for Children Touched by Autism

Resurrection Parish is hosting a Sacramental Preparation class for children and teens with autism spectrum disorders, IDD and Down Syndrome for First Communion, Reconciliation and Confirmation, as well as classes and religious education instruction for Grades K – 8. Classes will be held in the Ave Maria Academy school library Sunday mornings at a new time, 8:00 am. Children (suspected of) having an Autism Spectrum Disorder, Down Syndrome and/ IDD will again be welcomed and invited into this program.

High School aged students interested in learning to become "Teen Mentors" for these students in need are asked to contact Deacon Larry Sutton directly at lawrence.sutton@diopitt.org or lsutton@resurrectionpgh.org or to call Resurrection Parish at either Church Office. No prior experience is required. This is an excellent opportunity for high schoolers to earn service hours, while building a rewarding relationship with the students in the class.

The Serra Catholic High School Placement Test for incoming freshmen will be held on Saturday, November 5th from 8:45am - 12:00pm. Parent workshop on Financial Aid from 9:00am – 10:00am. To register or for more information contact Mrs. Lyons, Admissions Director, at lyonsl@serrahs.org or 412-751-2020 x134.

Oakland Catholic High School is hosting an Open House on Sunday, November 6th from 11:30 am - 2:30 pm. Prospective students and their families are invited to tour the school and meet Administration, Faculty & Staff, Alumnae, and representatives from the Athletic Teams and Clubs. Please visit <https://www.oaklandcatholic.org/admissions/dates-events> for event information. If you have questions in advance, please call the Admissions Office at 412.682.66333 x1253 or x1267.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Halos and Halloween! Faith, fun, and food! Halloween Party!

Tonight, Sunday, October 23, 6:00 – 8:00PM

We will eat, cue it up with a Billiards Tournament on our new Pool Table, and end the evening with faith and the fire pit.

We will meet in the Family Life Center at St. Thomas More Church. See you then!

Save the date for more great Youth Ministry events over the next few months...

- Sunday, November 6: Turkey Bowl at AMF Lanes
- Sunday, November 19: Fall Clean-Up Service Event, 9:00am-1:00pm

KINDNESS COUNTS

At Ave Maria Academy, we are blessed to participate in the HERO program. October's kindness activity included making bead rosaries and prayer cards for local nursing homes. Helping Everyone Respect Others is a school-wide initiative designed to recognize students for being respectful, attentive and appreciative of others' opinions.

FROM MS. HOWE'S DESK

Kindergartners have been learning about fire safety this October. We were lucky to have a visit from some special fireman; Mr. Fuerst and Mr. Trabucco, dads of two of our students!. They told us all about their job and we saw some of their equipment. We also learned that firefighters need to be smart, strong and caring. We learned fire safety rules and practiced stop, drop and roll. The students were also made Junior Firefighters!

The month of October is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. Students celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7th by creating a balloon rosary and praying as a school community in the school parking lot. It is a beautiful tradition that students look forward to every October.

Mary's Role in the Defeat of Evil

"THE IMMACULATE ALONE HAS FROM GOD THE PROMISE OF VICTORY OVER SATAN." - ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Our Lady was guaranteed Her role in every spiritual battle when God proclaimed, "she shall crush thy head, and thou shalt lie in wait for her heel." (Gen 3:15). She is ready to fight for Her children and give Her victory to you. Come and learn about Mary's role in the defeat of Evil and how to cooperate with the Immaculate's plan to crush the head of the serpent in your life.

Dave VanVickle has spent years assisting Priests with their ministries of exorcism and deliverance. Thousands of Catholics across the country have had the chance to hear this powerful presentation. Do not miss out!

FIDELITY AS THE MANIFESTATION OF REAL LOVE On Sunday, November 6th the South Hills Benedictine Oblates affiliated with St. Vincent Archabbey will gather for team presentations and discussion on the letters of spiritual letters by our patron, Bl. Columba Marmion. Our theme is centered on the reality of God's mercy and our response. A real love of Jesus leads us away from mediocrity and allows us to follow God's will with the "love of a spouse." Please arrive to be seated before 1:30 PM in the Bishop Leonard Room (directly under St. Louise de Marillac Church). Our meeting will begin with Daytime Prayer from Liturgy of the Hours and end at 3:00pm.

Christ the Divine Shepherd Community Thanksgiving Dinner Don't eat alone on Thanksgiving! Come, share and give praise and thanks to God on Thursday, November 24th at the Lourdes Center of St. Bernadette Church of Christ the Divine Shepherd Parish, 245 Azalea Drive, Monroeville, PA. We'll serve from 12:30 pm until 3:30 pm or until the food is gone. Open to those with no one to share the holiday with. Free of charge.
