THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord." - Lk 2:10-11

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." (Jn 1:5, today's gospel)

Christmas is the great annual renewal of our being a Church filled with wonder at the nearness of her God. The nearer we are to our God, the nearer we should become to those lowly ones who are God's special ones.

We are challenged at Christmas to do what Jesus and the angels did: bring the good news of redemption to the outcast and the lowly. The "tidings of great joy [are] to be shared by the whole people," and no one is to be left out, not even the most hopeless or despicable person.

"Our holy Mother (the Church) does not neglect the care of the poor or omit to provide for their necessities; but, rather, drawing them to her with a mother's embrace, and knowing that they bear the person of Christ Himself, who regards the smallest gift to the poor as a benefit conferred on Himself, holds them in great honor.

She does all she can to help them; she provides homes and hospitals where they may be received, nourished, and cared for all the world over, and watches over these."

Pope Leo XIII, Quod Apostolici Muneris, 1878:9

REFLECTION

Pastor's Letter

Mark, My Words:

Christmas is a time filled with many exciting things. Often there are gifts and gatherings, food and good times. But more than anything else, Christmas must be a time for us to step back and take in the deep and rich meaning of this sacred event. We must see, first, that God entered our human condition and, in doing so, is able to identify with all that we experience in life. God understands human life! He lived it.

Second, we must understand that the birth of the Savior of the World and His appearance to shepherds reveals that each one of us is invited to come and meet Him. God humbled Himself in the most profound way so that we could come to know Him and His perfect love for us. "Do not be afraid," as the angel said, to come and behold the Christ who came as your Savior. Do not be afraid to come to meet Him, love Him, adore Him and get to know Him. God is given to us, today, as an infant. Small, weak, fragile and innocent. Do not be afraid to gaze upon His humble presence and to give glory to God for His blessed coming.

As we celebrate the birth of Our Lord, all of us: the priests, deacons, seminarians and staff wish to thank you for your remembrances of us during this sacred season. Thank you for the cards, the well wishes and the goodies!

Today begins the Christmas Season. Christmas will conclude with the Baptism of Our Lord on January 9th. Challenge yourself to leave your Christmas decorations in place for the whole season and to focus on the love that God has for you!

Saturday, December 24

AROUND THE PARISH

Liturgy of the Hours Morning Prayer

This beautiful liturgical prayer finds its source in the Eucharist and is truly both ancient and ever new. Please join us for Morning Prayer on Thursdays at 8:00 a.m. before the 8:30 a.m. Mass at SJC. Easy to follow booklets are provided.

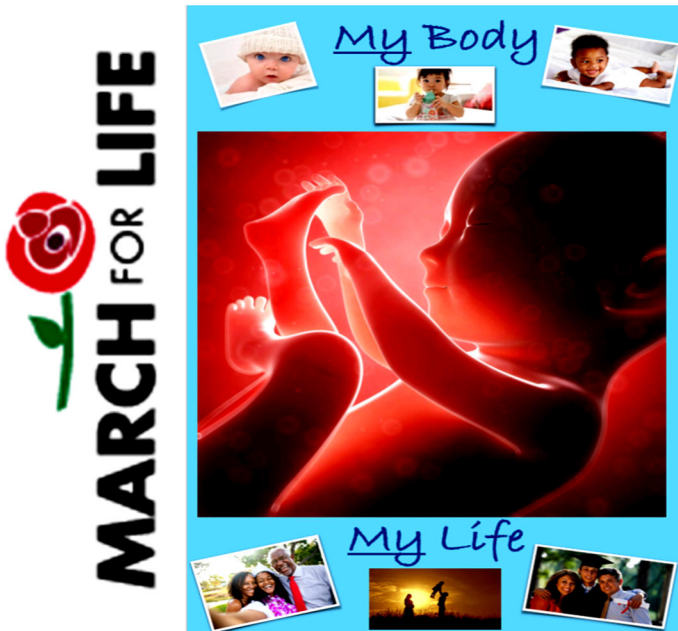

This Advent, Fr. Adam Potter, of Mary, Mother of God Parish, has announced a Litany of Trust Advent Retreat based on the text, "Jesus, I Trust in You: A 30-Day Personal Retreat with the Litany of Trust." He will be hosting a podcast through December 27th. The Women's Emmaus will be participating in this study as our December book club selection. We have created a Facebook page to encourage conversation during this study. If you would like to join in, please look for us under "Litany of Trust Advent Retreat" (Led by Pittsburgh Women's Emmaus), or scan the code above. We look forward to this Advent journey with you!

Still need to purchase Lottery Calendars to support the Appalachia Mission Tip? They are available at both parish offices through the remainder of December.

National March for Life in Washington, D.C.

Please save the date for Friday, January 20, 2023. We will begin the day with 5:30 a.m. Mass at St. Thomas More, then head to Washington, D.C. by bus. We will return by 10:00 p.m. Come and join us to witness for our babies - our greatest natural resource! Contact Carolyn at 412-860-9980 or 412-257-0780 for more information.

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTIONS

As the calendar year winds down, some parishioners are already planning their tax situation. Many individuals cannot benefit by itemizing their charitable deductions. However, there is another way to get tax benefits in 2022 by making a gift to Resurrection Parish.

Each year, any person at least 70½ years of age may make direct charitable gifts of up to $100,000 per year from an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) without having to report the distribution as taxable income. These annual IRA distributions are called Qualified Charitable Deductions (QCD).

Directing all or part of your annual QCD to Resurrection Parish lets you make a gift that will benefit the parish and may reduce your annual taxable income.

To Qualify:

- You must be at least 70½ year of age when you make your gift.
- QCDs must come directly from an IRA account administrator to Resurrection Parish. Funds that are distributed to you personally and later given to Resurrection Parish do NOT qualify. Gifts from a 401k, 403(b), Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) and other plans do NOT qualify.
- Your gift must come to Resurrection Parish outright. It cannot be used to establish a life-income arrangement.
- The distribution will not increase your taxable income, but it will also not generate a charitable deduction for income tax purposes.
- The QCD would count towards your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD). If you are 72 and older, the transfer of funds counts toward your annual Required Distribution from your IRA.

If you would like to make an IRA QCD for 2022, you need only direct your IRA Administrator to make the distribution to the parish by filling out a form letter of instruction and sending it to them. A letter thanking you will be sent for your records.

If you have any questions concerning this or any other contributions to the parish, please do not hesitate to contact our Business Manager, John Schwalm, at the parish office.

AROUND THE PARISH / YOUNG ADULT

After the busy-ness of the Christmas season, consider giving yourself the gift of a relaxing and refreshing weekend retreat in the company of fellow parishioners. Following two years of disruption due to COVID, St. Paul of the Cross Retreat Center is returning to its traditional format of providing this meaningful and much-needed spiritual experience. The weekend begins with dinner on Friday and ends at noon on Sunday after a closing liturgy.

- Women's Retreat: January 13-15, 2023
- Men's Retreat: January 20-22, 2023

The donation for the weekend is $250, and credit cards are accepted. To register, call the retreat center at 412-381-7676. For more information, you can visit the website stpaulsretreatcenter-pittsburgh.org; email stpaulrcpa@cpprov.org; or call any of these parishioners: Judy or Jay Shock at 412-854-4910; or Jim Stalder at 412-257-9706.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

One of the many blessings of a Catholic education is the opportunity to celebrate the Christmas season. Our school prioritizes the Advent journey to prepare our children's hearts for the coming of Baby Jesus! This time of year, our school is a bright beacon of hope as our students experience the season through the eyes of faith.

THE MAGIC OF THE SEASON

Jesus is born! From all of us at Ave Maria Academy, Merry Christmas! We hope you enjoy the splendor of the season and take time to experience the simple joys of the holiday. Our students spent Advent giving of themselves in service to share Christ's light with the world. Student Council raised money for the Make-A-Wish Foundation by selling candy canes and hot chocolate packets at lunch. The Advent Chain that hung in the hallway all month represented each action a student took to prepare for Jesus' coming, like helping around the house or praying for someone. Our younger students beautifully brought the Nativity scene to life in a traditional Nativity Play. All precious reminders of the true meaning of Christmas!

AROUND THE DIOCESE

Christ in His Divinity and in His Humanity On Sunday, January 8th the South Hills Benedictine Oblates, affiliated with St. Vincent Archabbey, will gather for team presentations and discussion on letters of spiritual direction by our patron, Bl. Columba Marmion. Our theme is "Christ, the Incarnate Word, the Source of all grace, and the infallible Way that leads to the Father. United to Him may we be borne to your bosom and consummated in the unity of Your Love." Please arrive to be seated before 1:30 p.m. in the Bishop Leonard Room (directly under St. Louise de Marillac Church). Our meeting will begin with Daytime Prayer from Liturgy of the Hours and end at 3:00 p.m.

Week of Christian Unity Interfaith Prayer Service "Let us glorify The Lord with praise and worship" led by Dr. Herbert V.R.P. Jones and The Heritage Gospel Chorale of Pittsburgh during the week of Christian Unity. All are welcome to join us on Saturday, January 21st, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. for an interfaith prayer service at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, St. Mary of the Assumption Church, 2510 Middle Road, Glenshaw, PA 15116. The celebration will continue with fellowship and refreshments immediately following in Marian Hall beneath the Church. Come with family and friends! A free-will offering will be accepted.

Retrouvaille Weekend February 17-19, 2023

Is your marriage going down the right road...or is it a little off track? Life can be difficult, and so can the challenges you face in marriage.

Does the distance between you seem wide? Are you already separated? Looking for a better way? Retrouvaille can help offering hope for a better relationship. Retrouvaille is a peer ministry of volunteer couples that can help you learn the tools of healthy communication to build intimacy and to heal, just as they have done in their own marriages. Retrouvaille can help you get your relationship back on track. For Information about our February 17-19, 2023 Retrouvaille Weekend visit our website: HelpOurMarriage.org, or call our local community at 412-277-3434.
