16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." - Lk 10:41-42

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

WELCOME | READINGS

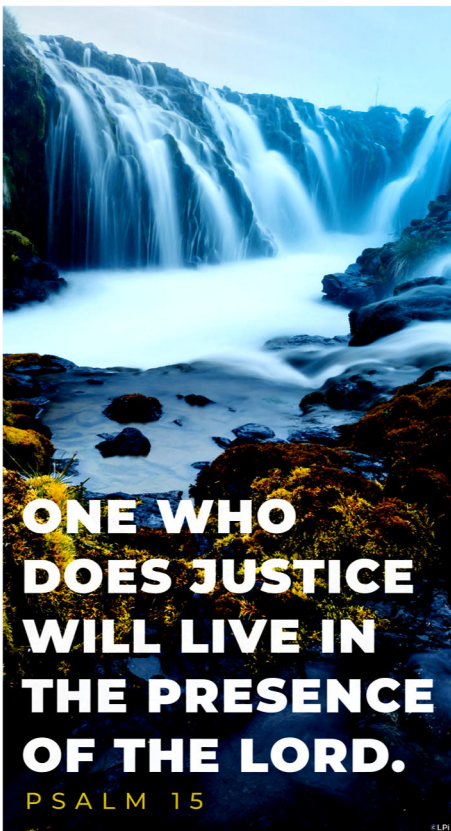

Please welcome our New Parishioners:

The Capriotti Family
Matthew Gillespie & Jaclyn Murdock
Bill & Rachel Limpert
Alex Brandel

May they feel the warmth of Christ in our Parish Community.

To our parishioners and visitors, our friends, neighbors, Catholics and non-Catholics: We're so glad you are here! If you have any questions about the Mass, church membership, or want to speak with a priest, please call one of the parish offices.

"There is need of only one thing." Lk 10:42, today's gospel

"Martha's trouble was not that she was scrabbling about, but that as she did so she forgot about Jesus. She was not making him welcome, she was constructing a meal. He even tells her that she was anxious and worried about many things, not the one thing necessary.

What is the one thing necessary? Relation to Christ.

Real hospitality means a two-way relationship in which host and guest open to each other, become present to one another in various ways. Hosts do work out the details of preparation, and they work hard. But they always remember the visitor while they prepare.

We are to find God in all things, in all the people we know and/or help, no matter how busy we might be. We are to relate to them because God is within them, deep in their souls. Touch them. Hear them. We will be giving hospitality to God himself." (Fr. John Foley, SJ, composer and scholar at Saint Louis University)

REFLECTION

Pastor's Letter

Mark, My Words:

This week, Jesus again goes against all Jewish expectations. Jewish women were not permitted to study the Scriptures with a rabbi. Women could listen to the public reading of the scriptures, but there are no known examples of women reading in the synagogue during Jesus' time.

Yet, Jesus affirms Mary's decision to stay listening and learning at his feet, like any other disciple, instead of doing women's work. This, again, is Jesus' way of wiping out artificial boundaries, and declaring that God's kingdom has no divisions, even within the Jewish family itself.

God sees differently, because God allows the lines to blur. We can learn to see differently, too. Blurring the typical, expected images we have of life and people and events enables us to see deeper into God's reality. St. Paul did this when he said, "There is no longer male or female, Jew or Gentile, rich or poor...."

Do you know how desperately people need us Christians to bring this deeper vision to the issues in our world today? If we say, "There is no longer disabled or able-bodied, gay or straight, young or old....", we are teaching the world to blur the old lines of rejection, prejudice, condemnation and abuse.

Leave the judgments up to God! By allowing nothing but God's love to reign supreme, by trusting to God's timing and God's deeper wisdom, we are bringing the light of Jesus Christ into the dark corners of those precious lives for whom Jesus died.

Please keep the Resurrection Parish Youth Ministry in prayer this week as they serve our sister community in Elkins, West Virginia for their annual Mission Trip.

"Faith in action is love, and love in action is service. By transforming that faith into living acts of love, we put ourselves in contact with God himself, with Jesus our Lord."

-Saint Teresa of Calcutta

Women's Emmaus The 17th Pittsburgh Women's Emmaus Retreat, led by women from local parishes, is a great way to deepen your faith and experience fellowship! You will have a chance to listen to other women talk about their faith journey, as well as experience quiet, reflective time. This is open to all women over age 18. You will have your own room at St. Paul's Retreat Center in Pittsburgh - the food is excellent, the grounds are calm and peaceful, and it will be a weekend that you will never forget.

The retreat is Friday, October 7 through Sunday, October 9, 2022

For questions, please contact Leslie Dambrogio at 412-780-2872 or ldambrogio@icloud.com.

The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek by Kim Michele Richardson is the topic for the Book Discussion Group meeting on August 8. The focus is on a nineteen year old librarian, Cussy Mary Carter, who with the aide of her mule, rides the rough terrain of rural Kentucky bringing books and much more to that populace. Cussy has a genetic condition that turns her skin blue. The author was inspired to write this book by the true blue-skinned people of Kentucky and the brave and dedicated Kentucky Pack Horse library service of the 1930's. Meetings are the second Monday of the month from 10 A.M. until noon in the Family Life Center at St. Thomas More Church. All are welcome.

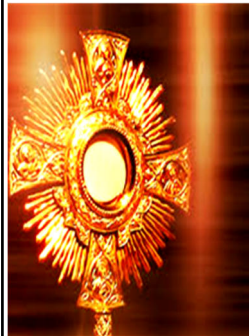

Liturgy of the Hours Morning Prayer This beautiful liturgical prayer finds its source in the Eucharist and is truly both ancient and ever new. Please join us for Morning Prayer on Thursdays at 8:00 AM before the 8:30 AM Mass at SJC. Easy to follow booklets are provided.

There are no weekly youth group events for Middle & High Schoolers at this time. Stay tuned for possible summer social events! 😊

Testimonial #7 A Gradual Transformation in Friendship

From a weekly committed adorer:

I have not had any dramatic experience between my first Holy Hour to my most recent. To be honest, in the beginning I was very much hoping and looking for a sign or some event that would prove to confirm all that I had heard and read about in the lives of saints. Mine has been more of a gradual easing into the realization that Jesus is with me in a very special way each visit. How I may feel has very little to do with it.

I know, that I know, that I know He is present Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. The more I came to the chapel to adore Him, the more it became about Him and less about me. I found myself no longer praying and petitioning of all the things I thought I wanted or needed.

Things started to change as I became aware of all that He has already given me. My prayer life has evolved to thanksgiving, praise and asking what I can do for Him that will help in His plan for the salvation of souls.

In the next part of my journey, when I leave this world, I so look forward to seeing all that is currently hidden from my sight and gazing upon my Jesus in all His Glory.

Current chapel opening: Tuesday 1AM.
Summer opening: Monday 9AM. Or just start by visiting. He is waiting to grow in friendship with you!

2022-2023 Faith Formation Registration: Each year families are to re-register their children for faith formation classes. Our 2022-2023 online registration form can be found under the Faith Formation tab / Religious Education / RE Online Registration on the parish website (resurrectionpgh.org). We are planning for in-person sessions this fall, with traditional, classroom based religious education classes for children and teens in grades 1-8 at St. Thomas More church; and Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Level I (for 3-6yr.) and Level II (for first grade only) at St. John Capistran church.

At St. Thomas More, we will offer classes for children in grades 1-8 on Sunday mornings from 9:15 – 10:45 a.m. and on Wednesday evenings from 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

At St. John Capistran, we will offer both CGS Level I (for 3-6yr.) and Level II (for first grade only) on Tuesday afternoons from 4:30 – 6:00 p.m. We will also offer CGS Level I on Thursday mornings from 9:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Home study for grades 1-8 is also an option for those families who wish to teach their children at home.

Please contact the religious education office at 412.835.6996 with any questions, or email Denise at ddecapria@resurrectionpgh.org or Jen at jorourke@resurrectionpgh.org.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS): CGS is a faith formation experience for children ages 3 to 12 years old. Founded on the principles of Maria Montessori and Sofia Cavalletti, the catechesis is rooted in scripture and liturgy. Central to the catechesis is the atrium, a special environment created to nurture the child's spirituality with beautiful materials that focus the child's attention on key scripture passages or liturgical moments. Children grow in their relationship with the Good Shepherd through Gospel proclamations using the parable method, through prayer, singing, silence, and by exploring liturgical events. Hands-on materials (made by catechists and parish members) are used to help children and adults reflect together upon the great mysteries of the faith. Please see the information above for scheduling of CGS this coming year. Families may register their children for CGS online on our parish website under the Faith Formation tab. Please contact the Faith Formation Office at 412.835.6996, Ext. 226, with any questions.
