*Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
to God who is, who was, and who is to come. (Rv 1:8, today's alleluia)*

One of the foundational truths of our faith is the "one God in three Persons: Father all-powerful, Christ Lord and Savior, Spirit of love." We can reason our way into knowledge of the existence of God, but we would never know of God as Trinity if it were not revealed to us.

There is much else about God that has been revealed: about God as giver of life, land, and food; about God as liberator and protector; about the God of peace and the God of covenant love; about the suffering God, the God of the poor; about the God made flesh, the God with us.

On this Trinity Sunday, it would be good to reflect on the God of our faith and worship. Do we honor the God of revelation, or do we honor a god of our own making? Do we honor the vengeful god of a merciless world, or do we honor "the Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity"?

"In his goodness and wisdom, God chose to reveal himself and to make known to us the hidden purpose of his will by which through Christ, the Word made flesh, man has access to the Father in the Holy Spirit and comes to share in the divine nature. Through this revelation, therefore, the invisible God out of the abundance of his love speaks to men as friends and lives among them, so that he may invite and take them into fellowship with himself." Vatican II, Constitution on Divine Revelation, 1965:2

REFLECTION

Pastor's Letter

Mike Drop...

The If you have been to any professional sports games, you have probably seen someone with a John 3:16 sign in the crowd. This excerpt, part of today's Gospel for Trinity Sunday, is a reminder of the hope we have in Jesus Christ. God loves you and I so much that he offered his Son for us and for our salvation.

As we resume Ordinary Time, the Church uses the first two Sundays following Easter to focus on the Holy Trinity (this Sunday), and the Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi, (next Sunday).

The Trinity is a great mystery of our faith, and a truly awe-inspiring concept upon which to reflect. Our God is a community of three distinct persons who exist in a loving relationship with one another. It is this love that constantly renews and refreshes the world. God the Father is the unbegotten one who has always existed, and who is often referred to as the creator. Jesus Christ is his co-eternal and co-equal Son; He is the Word of God and the perfect reflection of the Father and the Father's love. He is often referred to as the redeemer. The Holy Spirit is the personified love that exists between the Father and the Son; He is the one who sanctifies us. Perhaps today, we can reflect upon the gift of our triune God, and ask the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit to allow us to grow in love and in virtue each and every day.

Flea Market: Just a reminder that our flea market drop-off is underway. Please check this bulletin for the schedule, and check your closets, attics and basements for any items that you may want to donate.

Congratulations: Resurrection Parish offers its congratulations to Deacon John Ferguson, who, along with his classmates, was ordained this Saturday, June 3rd. Bishop Mark Eckman ordained John, who will serve our parish as a deacon this upcoming year. Thank you for your service Deacon John! We are proud of you.

Gratitude: Mary Lou Rodgers, a long time assistant in our religious education department, retired on June 1st. John Schwalm, our business manager, decided to take a new position in the financial world, and will leave us on June 9th. Thank you Mary Lou and John for your service to this parish! We are grateful to you and we will miss you both!

Chapel Sign-up Weekends Corpus Christi Procession and Cookout Eucharistic Miracles of the World Display

On Corpus Christi we begin year 2 of the 3-year Eucharistic Revival called for by the United States bishops. They believe God wants to see a movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist—and sent out in mission “for the life of the world.”

Eucharistic Adoration is a part of the Revival, and we are so blessed to have a 24/6 adoration chapel at Resurrection Parish. Adoration testimonials and chapel sign-ups will be available at all the Masses June 3-4 at St. John Capistran and June 10-11 at St. Thomas More.

On Corpus Christi, June 11th – the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – there will be an outdoor Eucharistic procession immediately following the 11:30 a.m. Mass at St. Thomas More, ending with Benediction in the church and a free cookout with ice cream.

The Eucharistic Miracles of the World Display was designed by Blessed Carlo Acutis who died at the age of 15 in 2006. The display will be in the Family Life Center and Capistran Hall June 10th and 11th. The celebration and display will culminate with a Mass by Bishop William Walterscheid on June 12th at 7:00 p.m. at St. Thomas More, followed by a light reception.

*By standing before the Eucharist Christ, we become Holy.
~Bl. Carlo Acutis*

Mother Daughter Traitor Spy by author Susan Elia MacNeal, is the topic for the June 12th meeting of the Book Discussion Group. In fact in 1939, in Madison Square Garden, 20,000 Americans rallied to celebrate the rise of Nazism. WEEK IN REVIEW

On Wednesday, May 24th the students of Ave Maria Academy took part in the longstanding Catholic tradition of May Crowning. It was a beautiful ceremony led by Fr. Mike Ackerman on our Bethel Park Campus and Fr. Brian Welding on our Mt. Lebanon Campus that honored Mary as the Queen of Heaven and the Mother of God.

The second-grade communicant students looked lovely in their First Communion attire while accompanying the newly confirmed eighth grade students. This year's eighth grade May Queen was Olivia Maida and the second grade Junior May Queen was Caroline Conroy. Both girls did a fabulous job! It was a joyous occasion to gather as a school community and honor Mary by worshiping, singing and crowning her with a small wreath of blossoms.

Mary, Holy Mother of God, Pray for us.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 2023

Please say an extra pray for the Class of 2023! Ave Maria Academy is blessed to celebrate our 8th grade graduates this Wednesday evening at a graduation ceremony on both campuses. We also pray for God's blessings on all of our legacy school alumni near and far who are graduating from high school and college as part of the Class of 2023!

For more details on all events see school website.

AROUND OUR COMMUNITY

Bl. Columba Marmion's "Program of Love" for Each Day

TODAY, Sunday, June 4th join the South Hills Benedictine Oblates, affiliated with St. Vincent Archabbey, as we gather for prayer, reflection, and sharing on Bl. Columba Marmion's main themes in a "program of love" to order our day so that we "love the Lord thy God with all thy heart." Please arrive to be seated before 1:30 p.m. in the Bishop Leonard Room directly under St. Louise de Marillac Church, 320 McMurray Rd, Pittsburgh, PA 15241. The meeting will begin with Daytime Prayer from Liturgy of the Hours and end at 3:00pm. We hope to see you!

One of the valuable lessons learned over the past few generations is that people with similar pain can be very good for each other. The expansive growth of AA is probably the largest example, but there are many others. Anyone that has ever lost a child knows how helpful others can be who have time spent in the club that no one wants membership. Those that have lost a family member or friend because of an addiction have a uniqueness to their grief and thus far, not many groups have been created for this specific pain.

Addiction Recovery Ministry is sponsoring a grief support group for family members or friends who have lost a loved one because of overdose or addiction. Our discussion will be framed by the video, "Among the Many." We will strive to offer hope to anyone grieving such a tragic loss.

Our weekly meetings will run until July 25th. They start at 7:00 p.m. and will be held at Addiction Recovery Ministry, 2599 Freeport Road, Harmar. If you have experienced this tragedy, please feel welcome. If you know of someone that has experienced this tragedy, please invite them.

If you would like more information, contact Deacon Tim Noca at 412-456-3165 or tnoca@diopitt.org.
