Established January 6, 2020, rooted in Catholic tradition and faith, Divine Mercy Parish is a Eucharistic community at the service to the most vulnerable among us. As we continue to grow in our early years, we hope to be the Parish where families and individuals can join together for beautiful liturgy, prayer and evangelization events, and go forth to spread the Gospel through works of mercy. If there is any way we can help you grow in your faith today, or you would like to learn more about the many opportunities we provide for you to be involved in the life of the Church, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Home Blessing for Epiphany

20 + C + M + B + 23

Performed by the head of the household with blessed chalk on Epiphany or any time of the year.

As you are writing the symbols 20 + C+ M+ B+ 23 the following prayer is said:

In the year of our Lord, two thousand (write the 20 at the front) and twenty-three (write the 23 at the end), Christus (write the C), Mansionem (Write the M) Benedicat (write the B), May Christ bless this home.

Through the intercession (write the first +) of Caspar (Write the second +) Melchior (write third +) and Balthasar (write the fourth +).

Then the following is prayed:

Sacred is this threshold of our home and holy is this door. This is the meeting place of friend, neighbor and stranger. May it be a bridge for our comings and goings. Whenever we stand in its sacred circle, may our eyes be granted new vision, so that we can see in friend or stranger the God of ten thousand disguises. May this threshold be a sacred space where we come to celebrate the Sacrament of Hospitality. May the spirits of evil never cross this threshold, and may the Name of the All- Holy-One protect our home from harm. May God's angels stand guard at the right and the left of this opening, to grace our comings and goings. May we who live in this home guard the sacredness of this doorway. May our hearts be always alert of the danger of falseness and pretense as we greet those who come to our door. Let our affection be graced with honesty and reverence, and may the oil of truth burn in the lamp of our eyes. Help us to remember that our ancestors were strangers and exiles in Egypt, that Joseph and Mary came knocking at a door like this, weary and in search of kindness. May we receive all at this door as Godly guests. May the blessing God and peace and grace of the All-Holy-One, surround this threshold and rest upon all who shall pass across it.

Response: Amen

Holy water is then sprinkled in every room of the house while praying the rosary or singing a hymn. The inscription written with blessed chalk should not be removed until the next year when a new threshold blessing performed.

DIVINE MERCY CENACLE

The Divine Mercy Cenacle is alive at Divine Mercy Parish!

introduction by:
Sister Pawla Witula

Reflection by: Michele

The week before Christmas, we had a beautiful celebration at our convent of the Sisters of Merciful Jesus with the two groups of Divine Mercy Apostles. The groups gather weekly for prayer time and spiritual reading of the Diary of St. Faustina at the Divine Mercy Parish. We would like to share a little bit more about our group and our participants' experience with all of you.

-Sr. Pawla Witula

'The Sisters of the Merciful Jesus entertained the Divine Mercy Participants at their beautiful mother house in preparation for Christmas last week. The evening began by joining the sisters in prayer and song during Eucharistic adoration while gazing on the life-like statue of the infant Jesus. The Advent feast included homemade Polish Pierogi, compliments of the sisters, and of other festive dishes from our members.

Since September 2022, two groups of the Divine Mercy Cenacle meet weekly with Sr. Pawla to review the previous week's lessons, to share thoughts and personal experiences. The topics include trust, Divine Mercy, spiritual dryness and love for souls. The assigned readings are taken from St. Faustina's diary, the Bible, the Catechism and the Cenacle Formation Manual. Members encourage and support one another and are enriched by the profound love and tenderness which Jesus offers to each of us through the content of the meetings and through each other. The end of each session is spent in Eucharistic Adoration, in silent prayer and singing the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Last fall, we were invited to the convent to celebrate the Feast Day of Saint Faustina on October 5. And in November, the Mother Superior from Poland, Joanna Kwiatkowska and Sr. Bernarda visited and attended our group and treated us with Polish praise and worship music. There was a beautiful Holy Hour and Mass that Saturday, followed by dinner and fellowship. Cenacle members are invited to become Eucharistic Apostles of Divine Mercy, a nonprofit apostolate of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception.

The mission of the Eucharistic Apostles of Divine Mercy is to profess and proclaim the truth of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist, to bring the Divine Mercy Message and devotion to a hurting world, to pray for and work for an end to abortion, and vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and to encourage members in the exercise of the Faith through the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. Finally, members are encouraged to become sensitive to the gift and beauty of all life, especially through care for the "lepers" of today – the rejected, the lonely, disabled, the elderly, and the dying.'

FIRST READING

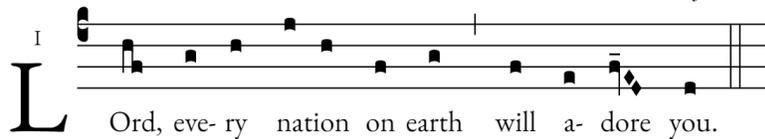

Is 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem Your light has come, / the glory of the Lord shines upon you. / See, darkness covers the earth, / and thick clouds cover the peoples; / but upon you the LORD shines, / and over you appears his glory. / Nations shall walk by your light, / and kings by your shining radiance. / Raise your eyes and look about; / they all gather and come to you: / your sons come from afar, / and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.

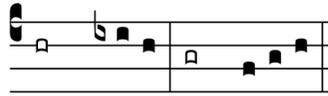

Then you shall be radiant at what you see, / your heart shall throb and overflow, / for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, / the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. / Caravans of camels shall fill you, / dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; / all from Sheba shall come / bearing gold and frankincense, / and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

EPISTLE

Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

ALLELUIA

Mode VII

☩ We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.

GOSPEL

Lk 2:16-21

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: / And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, / are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; / since from you shall come a ruler, / who is to shepherd my people Israel." / Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
