The Shepherd's Voice

By Father Mike Conway

I spend more time writing these columns than I probably should. I try to make them as informative, accurate, and educational as possible without being too dry or obtuse in the limited space that I have available. The problem is that I'm a perfectionist, so I overthink everything and go through multiple drafts before submitting my final copy right at the Wednesday deadline.

And then it doesn't matter anyway, because something really big happens that makes what I've written irrelevant (or at least seem that way.) Such was the case last week; I spilled a lot of ink trying to write in a meaningful way about vocations, only for the Supreme Court to issue their ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson on Friday.

I actually don't have too much to say about the Dobbs case. After all, I'm not a lawyer, and it's been a long time since my last political science course. I do know that the ruling is a step in the right direction, but after seeing a lot of the reaction to it, and reading a lot of the commentary, it's evident we still have a long way to go. The criticism most leveled against the Church is that we are pro-birth but not pro-life. Nothing could be further from the truth, so now seems as good a time as any to prove it. Let us redouble our efforts to charitably promote, protect, and defend life in all forms and at all stages, because in the end, all life is precious in God's sight.

Welcome – Once again, please extend a warm welcome to Fr. Jeremy Mohler, who begins his assignment with us this weekend. Father is primarily assigned to be the chaplain to the patients and staff at UPMC East and Forbes Regional Hospitals, and additionally as part-time parochial vicar at CDS. He will reside in the Monroeville rectory. Welcome receptions for Father will be held after the 11:00 AM Mass in Monroeville on July 10, and after the 9:00 AM Mass in Penn Hills on July 17,

4th of July – Please note that the morning Mass on Monday, July 4, will be at 8:00 AM, not 9:30, so as to not be in conflict with the Monroeville parade.

♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

Budget – Friday, July 1, began a new fiscal year for the parish. I am happy to report that, thanks to the hard work of Jerry Brandl, our business manager, and the careful oversight of our parish financial council, we have a balanced budget for the new fiscal year. In the next few weeks, we'll be presenting a year-end report for the year that just ended.

♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

Youth Ministry – The search begins! One of the things that has been very evident to me since I started here is the lack of a youth ministry program. It is a situation that is, quite frankly, unacceptable. Our new budget includes funds for a full-time youth minister position. We will be posting for this position this week, and hope to begin interviewing soon. I will keep you updated on our progress.

The Shepherd's Voice

DMA – The search continues! The PERCES Board has formed a search committee and has begun interviewing candidates for the principal position at DMA (and several other schools in the region). The hope is that this process will be completed in the near future. Again, I'll keep you posted.

✧ ✧ ✧ ✧ ✧

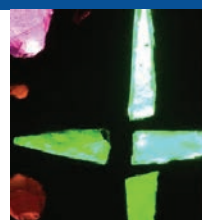

Flea Market – Just a reminder that drop-off for flea market items begins this Friday, July 9th. The sale will be the following weekend, July 15-17. Part with your old treasures and find new ones, all while benefitting our parish family!

Precious Blood – We have received news that we are able to resume distribution of the Precious Blood at Mass. Our plan is to do beginning next weekend, July 9/10. However, we will need additional extraordinary ministers to make this happen. Please check your settings and availability in Ministry Scheduler. Call Deacon Mike with any questions.

Also, if you are not yet comfortable receiving the Precious Blood, note that you are under no obligation to do so. We receive the fullness of the Lord's Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity no matter which of the Sacred Species we receive. And if you are feeling sick, please refrain from receiving from the chalice.

Oremus pro invicem!

DEACON'S BEACONS

"Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might."
Deuteronomy 6:4-5

This is the Great Sh'ma, the Jewish creedal statement. We have discussed this before but it bears repeating. God must be first and foremost in our lives. But just as God's love for all does not diminish His love for the individual, neither does our love for God diminish our love for our families and friends. In fact, it strengthens those bonds by the grace of God. A mature, actual love of God should never pull you away from those you love – unless that relationship may be, in fact, damaging to your spiritual welfare. But true, loving relationships find nourishment in the shared love of God.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike

Order of the Mass

Introit: We have received your mercy O God, in the midst of your temple.; even as your name, so also does your praise extend to the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with righteousness.

Entrance Procession:

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the king of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
Come, all who hear: Now to his altar draw near,
Joining in glad adoration!

2. Praise to the Lord, who shall prosper our work and defend us;
Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend us.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
Who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord

3. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in us adore him!
All that has life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the "Amen" sound from his people again,
Now as we worship before him!

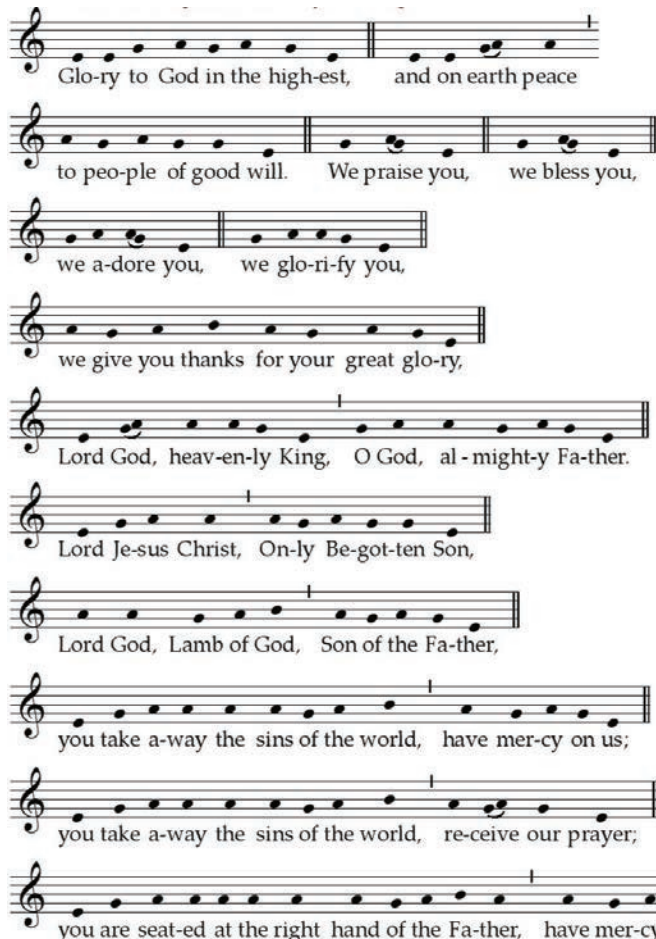

Greeting

Priest: The Lord be with you

All: And with your spirit

Penitential Act

Gloria

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will. We praise you, we bless you,
we a-dore you, we glo-ri-fy you,
we give you thanks for your great glo-ry,
Lord God, heav-en-ly King, O God, al-might-y Fa-ther.
Lord Je-sus Christ, On-ly Be-got-ten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther,
you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us;
you take a-way the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer;
you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us.

For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord,
you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spir-it, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Is 66:10-14c

Thus says the LORD: Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, all you who love her; exult, exult with her, all you who were mourning over her! Oh, that you may suck fully of the milk of her comfort that you may nurse with delight at her abundant breasts! For thus says the LORD: Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent. As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms, and fondled in her lap; as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; in Jerusalem you shall find your comfort. When you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like the grass; the LORD's power shall be known to his servants.

Responsorial Psalm: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading: Gal 6:14-18

Brothers and sisters: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither does circumcision mean anything, nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation. Peace and mercy be to all who follow this rule and to the Israel of God. From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Gospel AcclamationGospel Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.' Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say, 'The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.' Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand. I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town." The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Offertory:

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

1. When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of glory died, My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
2. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast Save in the death of Christ, my Lord; The vain things that now tempt me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
3. See, from his head, his hands, his feet, The pain and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
4. Were ev'ry realm of nature mine, My gift would still be far too small: Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Invitation to Prayer

Priest: Pray, brothers and sisters that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the almighty Father

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

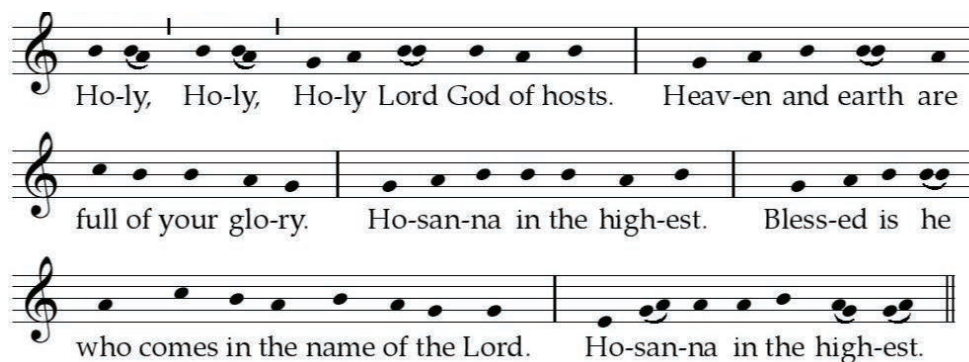

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God

All: It is right and just

Sanctus

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

Mystery of Faith

When we eat this bread and drink this cup we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Great Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Sign of Peace

Agnus Dei Agnus Dei, quitollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis. Agnus Dei, quitollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis. Agnus Dei, quitollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Communion Chant:

O Taste and see how gracious the Lord is; blessed is the man who trusts in him.

Communion Hymns

We are Many Parts

We are many parts, we are all one body, and the gifts we have we are given to share. May the Spirit of love make us one indeed; one, the love that we share, one, our hope in despair, one, the cross that we bear.

1. God of all, we look to you, we would be your servants true, let us be your love to all the world.
2. So my pain is pain for you, in your joy is my joy, too; all is brought together in the Lord.
3. All you seekers, great and small, seek the greatest gift of all; if you love, then you will know the Lord.

All The Earth

All the earth proclaim the Lord; sing your praise to God.

Statement from Bishop David Zubik on the Supreme Court Ruling Roe v. Wade

Those of us who have worked and prayed to protect unborn children are profoundly grateful that the Supreme Court of the United States has determined that there is not a constitutional right for abortion. In response, the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh will continue to support and encourage legislation that protects unborn children. We support women with crisis pregnancies and young families who struggle to raise their children. We offer medical and social assistance through Catholic Charities and collaborate with additional groups that provide childcare, life skills, education, shelter and help with other basic needs. Now, more than ever, our parishes are encouraged to participate in Walking with Moms in Need, a project of the U. S. Catholic bishops that prepare every parishioner to assist someone who needs support to carry or raise a child. We also offer Project Rachel, a ministry of healing for women who have had abortions and those who have supported them in that decision. We pray for many lives to be saved. It is time for a healthier national conversation about pregnancy and parenting, one that recognizes the real difficulties and creates ways to support pregnant women and to welcome children.
