Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

#411 Alleluia! Let the Holy Anthem Rise

Thanksgiving Prayer after Mass

I thank you, holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, who deigned to feast me, sinful and unworthy servant, with the precious body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, not for any merit of mine, but only because of your merciful goodness. And I pray that this Holy Communion, far from condemning me to punishment, may bring about my pardon and salvation, encompassing me with the armor of faith and the shield of a good will. By it let my vices be done away, all lustful desires extinguished. May it advance me in charity, patience, humility, obedience, and every other virtue. Let it be strong defense against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible, allaying for me every disturbance of flesh and spirit, binding me firmly to you, the one true God, and bringing my last hour to a happy close. I pray, too, that it may be your pleasure to call my sinful self one day to that banquet, wonderful past all telling, where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, feast your saints with the vision of yourself, who are true light, the fulfillment of all desires, the joy that knows no ending, gladness unalloyed, and perfect bliss: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Living the Promise of the Ascension

Father Thom Miller

Just outside Jerusalem, you can visit the Chapel of the Ascension. There, embedded in the rock, is the impression of a right foot—tradition holds it marks the spot from which Jesus ascended, almost like a divine launching pad. One might wonder: how far did He go? 36,000 feet? Up, up, up... (shrug!).

This past Thursday, we celebrated the Ascension of the Lord—the moment when the Risen Jesus withdrew from earthly sight. At Easter, we rejoiced in His appearances to the disciples. Now, we reflect on the moment those appearances ended. Strangely, the Gospel tells us the disciples returned to Jerusalem filled with joy. Why joy? Because Easter is about life—new, resurrected, unending life. Life with God. Life that bursts from the tomb in triumphant glory. For many, this life isn't immediately understood. Even the disciples had to go through fear, loss, and amazement before becoming witnesses of the Resurrection.

As they stood on the mountaintop, Jesus began to rise—and slowly disappeared from their sight. In shock, they lingered until angels urged them to move on and wait in prayer for the Holy Spirit.

Think of the imagery: perhaps like a space shuttle at Cape Canaveral, or a medieval painting showing only His feet beneath the clouds. But don't miss the deeper symbolism—God often reveals Himself on mountaintops:

- Noah after the flood on Mt. Ararat
- Moses receiving the Commandments on Mt. Sinai
- Elijah called to prophecy on Mt. Carmel
- Jesus transfigured on Mt. Tabor
- Jesus crucified on Mt. Calvary
- And now, Jesus ascending from the Mount in Bethany

The Ascension is not just about Jesus returning to the Father—it's about our destiny too. Jesus says: "I go to prepare a place for you. If I do not go, I cannot send the Holy Spirit." Yet He also promises: "I am with you always." His presence remains—in the Eucharist, in Baptism, and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

To be truly alive means more than existing. It means our lives have been changed because we know Christ—in Scripture, in the sacraments, and in the quiet of our hearts. Jesus assures us: "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore, go!" With His authority comes a mission, and a promise: "I will never leave you." This mission is given to every Christian. We must not neglect it—especially in our times, even when it feels daunting. We must take to heart His final promise.

President John F. Kennedy once said in his inaugural address—perhaps inspired by the Easter Vigil— "Now the torch has been passed to a new generation." It is our generation. Our turn to proclaim: Jesus is alive in me. And He will give us the power to live and witness—if we want it.

Christ didn't just vanish—He ascended, leaving us with promises we believe in, expect, and share. Now, as we await Pentecost, let's live those promises boldly.

Pass on the message!

The Ordination will take place at St. Alexis Church in Wexford. Nicholas Wytiaz and Brian Myler will be ordained as Deacons on this special day. Seven Sisters & Fasting Brothers Apostolate

⇒ Upcoming Event

On Saturday, June 28 during the 4:00pm Mass at St. Bernadette, there will be a Recognition & Recommitment Service for the members of Seven Sisters/Fasting Brothers.

⇒ Our Mission

The Seven Sisters answer the call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific parish priest, Bishop Zubik, and the seminarians. One person, one day, one hour. The hour can be fulfilled in very flexible ways. The Fasting Brothers are men who commit to fasting (in any form they discern) one day a week exclusively for the intention of our pastor, Fr. Mike.

We are currently in need of some additional members to fill a few vacancies. There will be a table set up with information about this apostolate before and after the mass on Saturday, June 28. Please stop by to learn more.

Curious? Have questions? Please feel free to reach out to one of the members listed below. There's no pressure or obligation; we are happy for you to simply ponder whether God may be calling you to this ministry.

DEACON'S BEACONS

Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. Ephesians 4:31-32

What Paul says we should avoid are things that are directly opposed to Christ's New Commandment: Love one another. If we are fighting and back biting, we cannot possibly love. God loves us and God loves the other person. So, even if you do not like that person, you are commanded to love them. It is part of being Christian. Love is not an emotion. Love is a choice, an action.

Celebrating Brian Myler's Call to Serve

Brian Myler, the youngest son of longstanding St. Susanna parishioners Jack and Bonnie Myler, will be ordained a deacon on June 7, 2025. For those of you who do not know Brian, he has been a very active member of the St. Susanna parish community since childhood. He served as an altar server into his college years and actively participated in youth group events.

Brian graduated from Penn State University with a degree in engineering and had a 10-year career at PennDOT before answering the call to the priesthood. He entered St. Paul Seminary in 2019.

Please join us on June 15, 2025, at the 9:00 AM Mass to worship with Brian. Then gather afterward for a social in the Spirit Room to celebrate Brian's ordination and to wish him well as he continues the final part of his journey toward the priesthood.

Join Us in Praying the Fatima Rosary for World Peace. Come spend a peaceful half hour with the Blessed Mother. She is waiting for you to join her in prayer. All are invited to pray the Fatima Rosary for World Peace on Saturday, June 7, from 3:00–3:30 p.m. at St. Bernadette's Church. This special devotion recalls the message of Our Lady of Fatima, who appeared to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal, in 1917. She urged the world to pray the Rosary daily for peace, conversion, and the salvation of souls. As we gather in faith, let us answer her call with open hearts and join our voices in this powerful prayer for peace in our world, our families, and our hearts. Come and be a part of this beautiful tradition.

Students in fifth grade learned about Pennsylvania Dutch Hex signs from the Lancaster area of our state. They explored different designs and learned the differences between images and symbols. Students then used various symbols to create their own hex signs. Symbols had to be drawn and traced in order to show radial symmetry.

Pentecost Sunday

The Extended Form of the Vigil Mass for Pentecost

Saturday, June 7, 2025 | 5:00 PM Mass
St. Susanna Church

Join us for the Extended Vigil of Pentecost, a powerful and prayerful celebration that prepares us for the coming of the Holy Spirit. Restored in the 2011 Roman Missal, this liturgy echoes the ancient tradition of the early Church, inviting us to reflect more deeply on the Spirit's work throughout salvation history. Like the apostles gathered in the Upper Room, we wait and pray together for a fresh outpouring of the Spirit in our lives and in our parish.
