Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 6, 2025

Prayer Before Mass

Almighty and ever-living God, I draw near to the sacrament of your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. I come sick to the physician of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy, blind to the light of eternal brightness, poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. So I ask you, most generous Lord: graciously heal my infirmity, wash me clean, illumine my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. May I receive the Bread of Angels, the King of kings and the Lord of lords, with such reverence and humility, such contrition and devotion, such purity and faith, and such resolve and determination as may secure my soul's salvation. Grant that I may receive not only the visible sign of the Lord's Body and Blood, but also the reality and the power of the sacrament. Grant, most kind God, that I may receive the Body of your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, which He received from the Virgin Mary, and may I receive it in such a way that I become a living part of His Mystical Body and counted among His members. O most loving Father, grant me your beloved Son. While on this earthly pilgrimage, I receive Him under the veil of this sacrament; so may I come at last to see Him face to face for all eternity. For He lives and reigns with You forever and ever. Amen.

Dismissal #609 For the Beauty of the Earth

Thanksgiving Prayer after Mass

Lord, holy Father, ever-living God, I thank you. For though I am a sinner and your unworthy servant, you have fed me with the precious Body and Blood of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. You have done this not because I deserve it, but because you are kind and merciful. I pray that this holy Communion may not add to my guilt and punishment, but may lead me to forgiveness and salvation. May it be for me the armor of faith and the shield of good will. May it purify me from evil ways and put an end to my base passions. May it bring me charity and patience, humility and obedience, and may it strengthen my power to do every kind of good. May it be a strong defense against the deceit of all my enemies, visible and invisible. May it perfectly calm all my evil impulses, both bodily and spiritual. May it unite me more closely to you, the one true God, and bring me to full possession of the goal I long for. And I pray that you will lead me, a sinner, to the magnificent banquet where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, are for all your saints the true light, total fulfillment, everlasting joy, gladness without end, exquisite delight, and most perfect happiness. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

From our Pastor

Father Michael Roche

I hope you all are enjoying a beautiful July 4th weekend! I have been blessed with many meetings and visits with you as I come upon 11 months of being your pastor. I am always available to chat and can be reached at mroche@diopitt.org.

I'm praying for a great week of Vacation Bible School! If you haven't signed up yet, I'm sure your child can still participate.

This is the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, and the first Sunday the priest wears green vestments since March. There's a danger that the word ordinary in English carries a connotation of humdrum or boring. If you told someone you had an "ordinary" July 4th weekend, they might feel bad for you. I found this helpful explanation of the season's name on the Ascension Press website:

"Ordinary Time is called 'ordinary' not because it is not special or less significant but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church—the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) nor in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent)."

This time is really when we live out what the other seasons prepare us for. For a long time in the Church, these Sundays were called the "Sundays after Pentecost," which I think helped us remember: We have received the Holy Spirit, and now we set the world on fire with His love, kindled within us!

We hear in the Gospel today about those who are sent out to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is at hand. This is still our work. We get to share with the world the Good News: now that Jesus has come, death has been conquered—and there is really nothing ordinary about reality at all! Vocations to the priesthood and religious life, as well as Christ-centered marriages, help the world know this truth. So please, pray for these!

Facilities Assessment Team Update

Thank you once again to all who participated in our parish-wide survey. The Facilities Assessment Team continues to carefully review your feedback to understand the needs and priorities of our parish community.

In addition to reviewing survey responses, we are awaiting a comprehensive report from PVE, an engineering firm that is currently assessing all parish buildings across both campuses. This assessment will inform us of any current or potential issues with the structures and a timeline of when any such issues would need to be addressed.

Together, the survey results and the facility assessment will help guide our next steps as we work toward both short-term improvements and long-term planning for our parish spaces. We look forward to keeping you updated as this important work continues.

Scam Alert: Phishing Emails

We've received reports that scam emails are once again circulating. These messages often ask for favors, gift cards, or other unusual requests, and they may look convincing at first glance. Please do not respond to any suspicious emails.

Here's how you can protect yourself: Always check the sender's email address carefully. Official parish communication will come from an address ending in @cdsmph.org or @diopitt.org. Be wary of urgent or unusual requests, especially those involving money or personal information. When in doubt, call the parish office to verify the message before responding. Stay alert and help keep our CDS family safe from online scams!

Quilt Show at the Lourdes Center

Christ the Divine Shepherd Parish is pleased to host a Quilt Show featuring the creative work of the Quilt Company East Quilt Guild. Join us at the Lourdes Center from July 17–19 to explore a beautiful display of traditional, modern, and artistic quilts crafted by talented local quilt artists. Show hours are 10:00 AM–6:00 PM on Thursday and Friday, and 10:00 AM–2:00 PM on Saturday. In addition to the exhibit, raffle baskets and a raffle quilt will be available. Admission is $10. All are welcome!

DEACON'S BEACONS

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." Matthew 5:14–16

The light that we bring into the world is the light of our faith. But, as the passage says, you should not be hiding that light. It needs to be seen in cation making a difference in the world because of what you believe, not because of you. As St. James tells us, faith without works is dead. But it is not our works that save us but the faith that underlies those works. The works are a testimony to our faith and are meant to bring glory to God and not ourselves.

unspoken. Rest beside these living waters

Christ is calling, Find refreshing. At the cross of living waters. Lay your life down. All the old gone. Rise up in these living waters

There's a river that flows. With mercy and love Bringing joy to the city of our God. There our hope is secure. Do not fear anymore. Praise the Lord of living waters

Spirit moving. Mercy washing. Healing in these living waters. Lead your children. To the shoreline Life is in these living waters

Are you thirsty. Are you empty. Come and drink these living waters. Love forgiveness. Vast and boundless Christ He is our living waters

Communion Hymn - Salt and Light

Oh the beauty of the King
You make righteous those who seek
You have written and redeemed my story

Let my eyes see Your kingdom shine all around Let my heart overflow with passion for Your name Let my life be a song revealing who You are
For You are salt and light

Oh the love that set me free
You bring hope to those in need
You have written and redeemed my story

You are love's great height
You are deep and wide
A consuming fire
You are salt and light
You are love's great height
You are deep and wide
A consuming fire

Christ the Divine Shepherd

Offertory Hymn - Shout to the Lord

My Jesus my Saviour, Lord there is none like You All of my days I want to praise. The wonders of Your mighty love. My comfort my shelter. Tower of refuge and strength. Let every breath all that I am Never cease to worship You

Shout to the Lord. All the earth let us sing Power and majesty. Praise to the King
Mountains bow down. And the seas will roar
At the sound of Your name. I sing for joy
At the work of Your hands
Forever I'll love You
Forever I'll stand
Nothing compares to the promise
I have in You

Hymn at the Dismissal - Joy of the Lord

Though the tears may fall my song will rise. My song will rise to You. Though my heart may fail my song will rise. My song will rise to You. While there's breath in my lungs. I will praise You Lord

In the dead of night I'll lift my eyes. I'll lift my eyes to You. When the waters rise I'll lift my eyes. I'll lift my eyes to You. While there's hope in this heart
I will praise You Lord

The joy of the Lord is my strength. The joy of the Lord is my strength. In the darkness I'll dance In the shadows I'll sing. The joy of the Lord is my strength.

When I cannot see You with my eyes. Let faith arise to You. When I cannot feel Your hand in mine Let faith arise to You. God of mercy and love I will praise You Lord

Oh You shine with glory Lord of light. I feel alive with
You. In Your presence now I come alive
I am alive with You. There is strength when I say
I will praise You Lord.
