

Deacon's Beacons

November 3, 2022

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever.

Give thanks to the God of gods,
for his steadfast love endures forever.

Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his steadfast love endures forever; Psalm 136:1–3

Sometimes it is just good to stop and give praise to God. Just take time to remember the blessing that you have received. We are always ready to ask God for more. There is nothing wrong with petitions. But we must be thankful for what we have. If a friend continues to ask for things without saying thank you, would you feel used? God is far more forgiving than we are but it is more about proper etiquette.
