For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.
Romans 15:4

Even though Paul is writing this about what we would call the Old Testament, what he has written and what followed in the Gospels and other New Testament writings also would be included. Scripture has been given to us for instruction. We should be careful though to apply it as it is written and not as we would like it to be applied. Sometimes we try to use Scripture and a club or a weapon. That is not its purpose. It is to bring hope, consolation and exhortation. Do not misuse it.
