So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. 2 Corinthians 4:16

Each of us is aging. Some of us are farther along in the process. Our physical bodies are not made to last forever. We still have an obligation to take care of them as best we can because they are part of God's Creation. But as this Epistle references a little later, we have an eternal dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven. While we do need to care for our bodies, we also need to care for our souls. That may be even more important in the larger picture.

Resurrexit sicut dixit!
