

Deacon's Beacons

June 3, 2022

"Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." Matthew 6:34

We worry about so much. It is said that the majority of things that we worry about never happen. Regardless, worrying about something will not change the outcome. Instead of worrying, we should be focusing on the goodness of God and be thankful for what He has done with us. There will be challenges in life. What gets us through the difficult times is knowing the love of God. Focus on what God has placed before you today.
