Deacon's Beacons

"Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. Not one word has failed of all his good promise, which he spoke by Moses his servant." 1 Kings 8:56

God's word is true and eternal. Yet we question it. Sometimes we think that we know better than God. We try to weasel our way out of following God's word by questioning if it is still relevant in a changing world. Opinions change; truth does not. Just because people begin to believe something, even if a majority believes it, does not make it true. We need to be sensitive to those who question even their very nature but God made them male and female. God does not make mistakes. Thinking that you are the wrong gender for your identity is self-serving. It can have no basis in fact. But we still must deal with these situation in a caring and compassionate way. These are still children of God, regardless of what you think of their choices or opinions.
