

Deacon's Beacons

October 11, 2023

Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. Hebrews 13:16

This should not be something about which we need to be reminded. But the author of the letter obviously saw a need to proclaim it. Faith is important but unless that faith is put into action in your life, what good is it? We may not be saved by our works but we cannot claim to have faith if we do not embrace the works of charity and love. Faith is an individual relationship with God that requires a communal commitment to conversion and compassion.
