

Deacon's Beacons

Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor.
Romans 12:10

One of the things that I tell couples at a wedding is that marriage is not a 50/50 proposition. If you are not willing to put everything in at all times, it will not work. But both need to have that attitude. While Paul is not talking about marriage here, the same idea applies. You should be more worried about what the other person needs than about what they can do for you. And if everyone has the same approach, would the world not be a far better place?
