

Deacon's Beacons

November 29, 2023

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way,
though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea,
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble at its swelling. Psalm 46:1–3

Sometimes it seems like God is not present to us. But even in our darkest moments, God is there. We may not feel His presence or we may think that He is not hearing our prayers. God will carry us through the most difficult times. We were never promised a life without troubles. Jesus told us that there would be difficult times in our lives but Jesus also told us that He would be with us always, until the end of the age. That is the promise that gives us hope.
