Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. Mark 13:31

God is eternal. And so is His promise. But being eternal does not mean lasting for endless time. Eternity is outside of time and so is God. Actually, God exists in spite of time. While this world will, at some point, end, God will not. That is the One who makes the promise to be with us always. Even the name of God given to Moses at the Burning Bush tells us this. It is a mixture of tenses that, while translated "I am Who am," it is more like Who is and Who was and Who ever shall be all wrapped in one four letter Hebrew word.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
