So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. Romans 10:17

If we accept this as true, then how will the next generation hear? If we do not tell them about Jesus, their failure to embrace the faith will fall on us, not on them. They will not learn faith by osmosis. It is true that we can teach the faith by example but more is necessary. We must teach the truths of our faith – that God is real, that Jesus died for our sins and then rose, that the Holy Spirit is active to this day. These are the facts. If we do not proclaim them, we cannot expect our descendants to find a vibrant faith. It is up to us.
