“Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal.”
John 6:27

This precedes the Bread of Life discourse in John's Gospel. Jesus is challenging what the people are seeking from Him. He had just fed the 5000 with so little food. But He had food greater than that to give them. He offers His Body and Blood as food for the people who believe. It is rather odd that people who say that every word in the Bible is literally true still do not accept what Jesus says when He tells these followers that they must eat His flesh and drink His blood. Jesus cannot be more clear that He is right here.
