

Deacon's Beacons

May 2, 2023

Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Romans 13:10

If part of the Law is respect and proper behavior towards our neighbor, then love is the best way to do that. If we love someone, we will not intentionally hurt them. So if we love, we will keep the Commandments. Therefore, we will fulfill the Law. To love is the last and newest Commandment that Jesus gave us in John's Gospel. Follow that and everything else falls into place.
