But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, John 1:12

If we are children of God, should we not be getting along? I know that sometimes siblings have issues but we are a family. We all need to work together to make the world a better place. This is the power that we have received through the Holy Spirit. This is the directive that Jesus left us – to love one another and to go teach, preach and baptize. If we do the first, the rest comes easier. But we struggle with that part. Maybe we should all just stop and spend some time contemplating the Cross. There is the model of true love. If we are children of God that is the love for which we must strive. There is no better than here. God wants our best.
