Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?” John 11:25–26

Talk about being put on the spot! Martha is directly questioned about her faith by her Savior Himself. How would you answer? Would you be as quick as she was? Would you be willing to put everything on the line for your answer like the Apostles and martyrs were? This is what we are called to do when we profess our faith. Modern Christianity (for the most part) does not experience a danger in professing faith. Maybe that is why so few take it seriously.
