

Deacon's Beacons

September 18, 2023

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. John 14:16–17

This is Jesus' promise that the Holy Spirit would abide forever with His Church. We believe this to be true and that is why we believe that the Church cannot err in matters of faith and morals. That places us in opposition to those who change with the winds of the times. Just because the world comes to accept something, that does not make it right. What is right is what God says is right. God's Word is true and eternal. It does not change. We must stand against such changes but we must also do it with compassion and love.
