

Deacon's Beacons

January 15, 2024

Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, who has made us sufficient to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 2 Corinthians 3:4–6

We cannot do this on our own. We must have the grace of God to be able to do anything. That grace allows us to embrace the call to follow Jesus and to properly worship God. When we put God at the center of our lives, we understand that we are redeemed because of God and not because of anything we can do. But once redeemed, we must conform our lives to that call.
