He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Romans 8:32

The ultimate act of God's love is the Passion of Jesus. That was given as a remedy for our sinfulness. It was the only thing that could be done to satisfy the All Just God. But the All Merciful God stepped in and took our punishment on Himself. If God was willing to do that, what would God withhold from His people? Does that mean that God is going to give us everything for which we ask? Well, no. God knows what we need and what will benefit us. Trust that God know what is best for you and accept His will.
