

Deacon's Beacons

January 22, 2024

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. Psalm 90:2

God exists outside of time. So it is very hard for us to understand His eternal nature. It is not endless time. It is something entirely different. If we cannot comprehend how God exists outside of our concept of time, how can we really grasp His nature? All we can do is to model Him after our own experiences. And that places limits on God that do not apply. God is transcendent. God is ineffable, to use a technical term. All we can do is worship Him. That does not require that we understand His nature. It simply requires that we accept that He is God.
