You belong to God, children, and you have conquered them, for the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. 1 John 4:4

God is greater than the devil. But that does not stop the devil from trying. As long as the devil is in the world, he will try to sway people from the truth. That is the only way he can win anything. God could vanquish the devil but then where would Free Will be? If we have no choice but to follow God, is that an act of love? Or is it a forced relationship? We must be free to choose to follow God so the existence of the devil is required. We must be able to exercise our Free Will to enter into the love of God without coercion or force. That is how much God loves us.
