

Deacon's Beacons

January 26, 2024

And he said to them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions." Luke 12:15

We think that it is a modern obsession to have more and more stuff. But it seems that, even in Jesus' time, it was an issue. We need things (at least some things) to survive. But when our existence centers on how much stuff we have, there is a problem. It is very simple. He who dies with the most toys still dies. You cannot take it with you.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
