

Deacon's Beacons

October 22, 2024

And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. Colossians 1:17–18

Paul talks about the Body of Christ and how it is made up of many members In Corinthians, he talks about the different roles of the members and how not all can play the same role. However, there can only be one Head And that Head is Christ. Recognizing that, we all play our parts as we are called by God's Holy Will. We do that under the direction of the One Head. That is why He is preeminent.
