Against you, you only, have I sinned
and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment. Psalm 51:4

God is justified in condemning us for our sins. Yet He has chosen another path. We have sinned continue to do so and would deserve the punishment of God. But God loves us. Therefore, He chose to take our offenses upon Himself. In Jesus, God becomes the Sacrifice, the cost of our salvation. While God would be blameless in punishing us, He is even more so in saving us.
