Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me. Psalm 23:4

Arguably the most famous line from the most famous Psalm. It tells us that, no matter what danger or trial we face, God will be with us. That reassurance is repeated at the end of Matthew's Gospel when Jesus promises to be with us until the end of the age. God is faithful. But we, being human, tend to doubt that, because our human experience tells us otherwise. But God is transcendent. He is not like us. He is perfect and His promise is eternal. Trust in God and in the promise of Jesus Christ.
