...for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. 2 Timothy 1:7

The Fear of the Lord is something that confuses many. It is not based on what we think that God will do to us but more what our actions do to God. We must be careful not to impose human emotions on God but, just as anyone we love, we would not want to do something to offend that person. The same applies to God. While God may not be offended as we might experience it, we still want to avoid doing anything that we would be offended about. That is the best way to describe the Fear of the Lord.
