

Deacon's Beacons

April 4, 2024

“Am I a God at hand, declares the LORD, and not a God far away? Can a man hide himself in secret places so that I cannot see him? declares the LORD. Do I not fill heaven and earth? declares the LORD. Jeremiah 23:23–24

God is everywhere. God sees all that we do. Nothing is hidden from God. Yet God still loves us. Unconditional love is something that we think we can do. But we fall short at times when someone really disappoints us. God is not like that. And we should be ever so thankful for that.
