

Deacon's Beacons

April 15, 2024

“The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to be silent.” Exodus 14:14

We see this as a recurring theme in the Old Testament. Have faith and let the Lord win your battles. But how often do we do that? We think we need to speak up, condemn others and judge our neighbor. There are so many things wrong with that approach, beginning with the lack of faith that God will do what He said. Maybe we think that God is not working fast enough to suit us. Maybe we think that the person we consider bad should not be prospering. Do you see the list of deadly sins piling up there? We have pride and envy. We have a whole boatload of sins because we think someone else is sinning. As Jesus said, “Let the one without sin be the first to cast a stone.”

Resurrexit sicut dixit!

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike

I will be away for a while so these will resume when I return.